H1’13 Saw LPsIncreasing to 8,055 and Slow Growth of Investable Amount

According to the statistics recently published by Zero2IPO Research Center, a well-known VC and PE research institute in Greater China, H1’13 saw a persistentlyunfavorable ChineseVC/PE market, with varying decreases in financing, investments and exits by VC/PE firms. In the first half, VC/PE firms completed fundraisingfor 121 new funds with total amount of US$7.82B; 516 investments took place with total amount of US$9.92B involved; and 73 exits were completed, only 13 of which were materialized via IPOs. In the context of an unoptimistic VC/PE market, the LP market continued its downturn and grew slowly. By the end of the first half of 2013, the number of LPs in China’s VC/PE market had increased to 8,055, among which6,629 LPs had disclosed their investment amounts; the amount of capital available for investments in China had risen slightly to US$814.72B. Compared with the figures of the end of 2012, the number of LPs grew by 7.2% and the amount of available-for-investment capital increased slightly by 0.9%.
