Cap. 161.

[9th June, 1897.]

Short title.

1. This Law may be cited as the Sirividhi Law.

Interpretation.

2. In this Law—

“ winter cereals ” means and includes wheat, barley, oats and rye.

Application of the Law.

3. The Governor, upon the petition of the inhabitants of any village praying that the provisions of this Law may be applied to their village, and upon the certificate of the mukhtar that the persons signing the petition form a majority of the owners and occupiers of the cultivated arable land in the village, may order that the provisions of this Law shall be applied to the village ; and where the provisions of this Law have been applied to any village the Governor, with the advice of the Agricultural Board, may declare any village or area adjacent thereto to be infected with the disease of sirividhi, and thereupon the provisions of this Law shall apply to that village or area.
