TO PROTECT THE REVENUE OF CYPRUS.

1949
Cap. 300.

[9th May, 1923.]

Short title. 1. This Law may be cited as the Public Revenue Protection Law.

Power of Governor in Council. 2. If the Governor in Council shall approve of the introduction into the Legislative Council of a Bill whereby, if such Bill be passed into law, an import or export duty shall be imposed on any article previously exempt from import or export duty, or whereby the import or export duty previously payable on any article shall be increased, the Governor in Council may issue an order to the Comptroller to demand and to levy on such article the duty set forth in such Bill as the duty to be levied on such article, in lieu of the duty payable thereon under the existing law.

Duration of order. 3. (1) Every such order shall come into force on a day to be named therein, which day shall not be more than twelve days before the introduction into the Legislative Council of the Bill in respect of which such order was issued, and shall have the effect and force of law so long as the said order shall remain in force.

(2) Every such order shall expire and cease to be in force—
 (a) on the rejection by the Legislative Council of the Bill in respect of which such order was issued, or on the withdrawal of such Bill, or on the consideration of such Bill by the Legislative Council being adjourned sine die, or on the dissolution or prorogation of the Council; or
