A LAW TO PROVIDE FOR THE INCORPORATION OF AN ORPHANAGE AND TRAINING SCHOOL ESTABLISHED BY DEMETRAKIS G. DIANELLOS OF LARNACA.

1 of 50.

[11th January, 1950.]

WHEREAS Demetrakis G. Dianellos of Larnaca (in this Law referred to as "the settlor," which expression where the context so admits includes his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns), has, by trust deeds made on the 15th and 20th days of December, 1949, declared that he holds as a trustee the immovable properties described in the Schedule hereto together with a sum of fifty thousand pounds in cash in trust for poor orphan children of the Greek-Orthodox community for the establishment of an orphanage and training school for such children:

AND WHEREAS it is expedient to provide by Law for the establishment of the orphanage and training school as aforesaid, and for the vesting of the said immovable property and money in such orphanage and training school and the management and control thereof:

Short title.

1. This Law may be cited as the Orphanage and Training School (Demetrakis G. Dianellos of Larnaca) Law.

Interpretation.

2. In this Law—

"orphan" means a poor child belonging to the Greek-Orthodox community of the town and district of Larnaca who has lost both his parents:

Provided that the above definition may, by regulations made under this Law, be extended to include—

- (a) any poor child of the said community who has lost his father only;
- (b) any poor child of any other Greek-Orthodox community in the Colony who has lost either both his parents or his father only.

“Orphanage and Training School” means the Orphanage and Training School established as in this Law provided.

3. The Orphanage and Training School shall be a body corporate by the name of “Orphanage and Training School, Demetrakis G. Dianellos of Larnaca” and by that name shall have perpetual succession and a corporate seal, in such form as may be prescribed, with power to hold property, to enter into contracts, to institute and defend suits and other legal proceedings and, generally, to do all things as may be necessary for the purposes of its establishment.

Orphanage and Training School to be a body corporate.

4. Upon the coming into operation of this Law—

Vesting of property.

- (a) the immovable properties set out in the Schedule hereto situated in the town of Larnaca and registered in the name of the settlor shall vest, and be registered, in the name of the Orphanage and Training School without payment of any fees and the necessary amendments of the registrations in the books of the District Lands Office shall be effected forthwith by the proper authority without any further formality;
- (b) the sum of fifty thousand pounds as aforesaid, shall be forthwith paid into a bank approved by the Governor in the name and for the account of the Orphanage and Training School, thereafter to be disposed of in such manner as may be prescribed.

5. (1) The Orphanage and Training School shall be managed and controlled as follows:—

Management and control.

- (a) by the settlor, during his lifetime, or, if he is incapacitated by illness or is absent from the Colony, by such person as the settlor may appoint in his place until he resumes his duties:

Provided that, if the settlor fails to make any
