

Repeal of Law 7 of 1886, sec.
2 (2), and substitution of new subsection.

2. The Principal Law, section 2 (2), is hereby repealed and in place thereof the following sub-section shall have effect:—

2.—(2) In any application under the provisions of this Law to set aside a transfer or assignment of any property made to any parent, spouse, child, brother, or sister of the transferor or assignor otherwise than in exchange for money or for other property of equivalent value (or for good consideration) the onus of proving that such transfer or assignment was bona fide and not made with intent to hinder or delay his creditors shall rest upon the transferor or assignor and upon the person to whom such transfer or assignment has been made.

Amendment of Law 7 of 1886, sec.
3 (1).

3. The Principal Law, section 3 (1), is hereby amended by the insertion in line 3 after the word "Law" of the words "whether made before or after the commencement of an action or other proceeding wherein the right to recover the debt has been established" and the deletion in lines 5 and 6 of the words "the action or other proceeding wherein the right to recover the debt has been established" and the substitution therefor of the words "such action or other proceeding."
