BE it enacted :—

Short title.

1. This Law may be cited as the Customs and Excise Regulation (Amendment, No. 2) Law, 1928, and shall be read as one with the Customs and Excise Regulation Law, 1879, (hereinafter referred to as the Principal Law), the Customs and Excise Regulation (Amendment) Law, 1924, the Customs and Excise Regulation (Amendment) Law, 1927, the Customs and Excise Regulation (Amendment, No. 2) Law, 1927, and the Customs and Excise Regulation (Amendment) Law, 1928, and the Principal Law and the said Laws and this Law may together be cited as the Customs and Excise Regulation Laws, 1879 to (No. 2) 1928.

Addition of new section.

2. The following section shall be inserted in the Principal Law as section 60:—

Exportation of wines.

60. (1) The exportation of wines manufactured in Cyprus to Great Britain, Ireland and the British Colonies is hereby prohibited, provided always that the Governor may authorise such exportation by licence under his hand after previously obtaining the opinion of an expert Committee, composed of the Comptroller of Customs and Excise for the time being, the Government Wine Expert for the time being, and a wine expert nominated by the person applying for the exportation of wine, to the effect that the wine to be exported possesses the standard required for sale and competition in British markets.

(2) Any person exporting or attempting to export wines to Great Britain, Ireland and the British Colonies save as provided by this section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds, and all such wines exported or attempted to be exported shall be liable to forfeiture.

This Law was published in the Cyprus Gazette No. 1918 of the 12th May, 1928.
