RONALD STORRS.]

[December 16, 1930.

BE it enacted:—

Short title.

1. This Law may be cited as the Census Law, 1930.

Power to Governor in Council to direct taking of census.

2. Subject to the provisions of this Law it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council by Order from time to time to direct that a census shall be taken in Cyprus, or any part of Cyprus and any Order under this section shall be published in the Cyprus Gazette and it may prescribe,

(a) The date on which the census is to be taken and the hour therefor ;

(b) The person who shall superintend the taking of the census (hereinafter referred to as the superintendent) ;

(c) The persons with respect to whom the returns for the census are to be made ;

(d) The particulars to be stated in the returns.

Power
to make regulations.

3. For the purpose of enabling any Order in Council directing a census to be taken to be carried into effect, the Governor may make regulations to be published in the Cyprus Gazette,

(a) Providing for the division of Cyprus into districts for the purpose of the census ;

(b) With respect to the forms and schedules to be used for the taking of the census ;

(c) Requiring the persons with respect to whom the returns are to be made to answer any particulars contained in the forms and schedules ;

(d) Requiring information to be given to the returning officers by persons with respect to whom the returns are to be made ;

(e) Making provision with respect to any other matters with respect to which it is necessary to make provision for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of the Order in Council.
