

No. 71 of 1932.

A LAW TO CONFER INDEMNITY IN RESPECT OF ACTS DONE A.D. 1932.
OR COMMITTED IN CONNECTION WITH THE RESTORATION 71 of 1932.
OF ORDER IN CYPRUS BETWEEN THE 21ST OCTOBER,
1931, AND THE 31ST DECEMBER, 1932.

R. E. STUBBS,
Governor.

[31st December, 1932.]

BE it enacted:—

1. This Law may be cited as the Indemnity Law, 1932. Short title.
2. No action, prosecution, or legal proceeding whatsoever shall be brought, instituted, or maintained against the Governor or against any person acting under him in any command or capacity, civil or military, or in pursuance of any orders, general or special, given by him in that behalf, for or on account of or in respect of any acts, matters or things whatsoever in good faith advised, commanded, ordered, directed, or done for the maintenance of good order and government or for the public safety of Cyprus between the 21st October, 1931, and the 31st December, 1932, both inclusive. No legal proceedings to be brought in respect of acts done for public safety, etc.
3. Every such person aforesaid by whom any such act, matter, or thing shall have been advised, commanded, ordered, directed, or done for the purposes aforesaid shall be freed, acquitted, discharged, released and indemnified against all and every person whomsoever in respect thereof. Persons who have done such acts to be acquitted.
4. Every such act, matter or thing referred to in the preceding sections shall be presumed to have been advised, commanded, ordered, directed, or done, as the case may be, in good faith, until the contrary shall have been proved by the party complaining. Such acts to be presumed to have been done in good faith.

This Law was published in the Cyprus Gazette No. 2263 of the 31st December, 1932.
