A.D. 1933. A LAW TO MAKE BETTER PROVISION FOR THE MANAGEMENT
44 of 1933. AND CONTROL OF THE VAKF KNOWN AS JELALIE
PRIVILEGED VAKF.

R. E. STUBBS,]
Governor.

[2nd December, 1933.

BE it enacted:—

Short title.

1. This Law may be cited as the Jelalié Privileged Vakf Management Law, 1933.

Inter-pretation.

2. In this Law, unless the context otherwise requires,—
“Delegates” means the Delegates of Evcaf appointed under the provisions of the Cyprus Evcaf (Mohammedan Religious Property Administration) Order in Council, 1928, or any amendment thereof, for the time being ;

“Fraternity” means the sect known as the Mevlevi Dervishes ;

“Vakf” means the Jelalié Privileged Vakf.

Vesting of manage-ment and control of Vakf in the Delegates.

3. The management and control of all the movable and immovable property of the Vakf is hereby vested in the Delegates, who shall manage and control such property and the revenue derived therefrom subject to the provisions of this Law and of any regulations made thereunder.

Exchanges and conver-sion.

4.—(1) Subject to the approval of the Governor, the Delegates may—

(a) effect exchanges of any property of the Vakf with property of any category ;

(b) authorize the conversion of any immovable property of the Vakf held in single rent tenure into double rent tenure.

Fees.

(2) On any conversion under sub-section (1) (b) of this section, the fees collected therefrom shall form part of the revenue of the Vakf.

Estimates.

5. The Delegates shall, not later than the first day of December in each year, prepare estimates of revenue and expenditure for the Vakf for the ensuing year, and shall submit the same to the Governor for his approval.

Delegates to keep special account.

6. The Delegates shall keep a special account showing the revenue and expenditure of the Vakf.

Revenue to be utilized for Vakf.

7. The revenue of the Vakf shall be utilized exclusively for the benefit and objects of the Vakf as prescribed in any deed of dedication or other valid instrument relating to the Vakf.
