A LAW TO PROVIDE FOR THE FORMATION OF A VOLUNTEER FORCE IN CYPRUS.

W. D. BATTERSHILL,
Governor.

[14th June, 1940.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Cyprus as follows:—

1. This Law may be cited as the Cyprus Volunteer Force Law, 1940. Short title.

2. In this Law, unless the context otherwise requires:— Interpretation.
“Army Act” means the Army Act, 1881 (44 and 45 Vict., c. 58), of the United Kingdom, and includes all acts amending or substituted for the same and all articles of war thereunder in force.

“Commanding Officer” used in relation to the Force means the Commanding Officer of the Force appointed under section 9 or in his absence the next senior officer actually present and doing duty with the Force.

“Force” means the Cyprus Volunteer Force formed under this Law.

“officer” means a person holding the Governor’s commission as an officer of the Force.

“other rank” means warrant officers, non-commissioned officers and privates of the Force.

“recruiting officer” means a person appointed under section 6 to enlist other ranks.

Power of Governor to form Force.

3. It shall be lawful for the Governor whenever it appears advisable to do so by reason of the existence of a state of war or of the apprehension of war or by reason of any internal emergency threatening the security of life or property to form a Force to be called "the Cyprus Volunteer Force" with a view to assisting the Regular Forces in the Colony or the Cyprus Police Force or both in all measures required for resisting invasion or ensuring internal security.

Persons eligible for enlistment.

4.—(1) It shall be lawful for the Governor on behalf of His Majesty to accept the service of any persons being British subjects desiring to join the Force and offering their services to His Majesty.

(2) Nothing in this section contained shall be deemed to render it obligatory upon the Governor to accept the services of any person.

Governor to fix the strength of Force.

5. The Governor shall have power from time to time to determine the strength of the Force and its establishment of officers and other ranks.

Recruiting officer.

6. The Governor may by writing under his hand appoint any person to enlist suitable persons to serve in the Force.

Term and form of engagement.

7. Every other rank shall, upon enlistment, sign an engagement for three years, in the Form set out in the First Schedule to this Law. or the duration of the present war, whichever may be the longer period

Oath or declaration.

8. Every other rank shall, upon enlistment, take the oath or make the declaration in the Form set out in the Second Schedule to this Law to be administered by the President or a Judge of a District Court or by an officer of the Force or by a recruiting officer.

Power of Governor to appoint officers.

9. The Governor may appoint a Commanding Officer, an Adjutant and such officers of the Force as he may deem necessary.

Uniforms, arms, etc.

10.—(1) Officers and other ranks shall wear such uniform and shall carry and use such arms, ammunition and equipment as the Governor may direct to be supplied to the officers and other ranks by the Government.

(2) The uniform and any arms, ammunition and equipment supplied to any officer or other rank shall remain the property of the Government.

11. The Commanding Officer shall be responsible to the Governor for—

- (a) all arms, ammunition, equipment and stores issued to the Force;
- (b) all moneys and funds which may be entrusted to him from time to time for the use of the Force;
- (c) the maintenance of the strength of the Force;
- (d) the discipline and good order of the Force;
- (e) generally for the proper carrying out of such lawful orders as may be issued to him from time to time by the Governor or any person duly deputed by the Governor in that behalf.

Commanding Officer to be responsible for discipline,
etc., of the Force.

11A added

Sec. 2 of 13/41.

12. The provisions of the Army Act shall apply with respect to the discipline of officers and other ranks subject to the following modifications:—

Application of Army Act.

- (a) The word "Force" may be read therein for the words "regular forces";
- (b) The words "other rank" may be read therein for the word "soldier";
- (c) The words "The Governor" may be read therein for the words "His Majesty" or "Secretary of State".

13.—(1) The Governor may discharge any officer and the Commanding Officer may discharge any other rank who has been guilty of misconduct, disobedience or neglect of duty or who, in his opinion, is unsuitable to be a member of the Force, without payment to such officer or other rank of any compensation whatsoever.

Discharge of Officers and other ranks.

(2) Any officer or other rank discharged under the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be liable to deliver up in good order, fair wear and tear and legitimate use only excepted, the uniform and all arms, ammunition and equipment issued to him.

14.—(1) The Commanding Officer shall have power to make any agreement or take such action as to him may seem fit in respect of or relating to any matter incidental to the ordinary requirements of the Force and to institute civil proceedings by the name of his office on behalf of the Force.

Power of Commanding Officer to make agreements, etc.

(2) All civil proceedings against the Force shall be brought against the Commanding Officer.
