

No. 4 OF 1952.

A LAW TO AMEND THE PENSIONS LAW.

CAP. 288.

A. B. WRIGHT,]
Governor.

[25th February, 1952.

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Cyprus as follows :—

1. This Law may be cited as the Pensions (Amendment) Law, 1952, and shall be read as one with the Pensions Law (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Law").

Short title.

2. Section 6 of the principal Law is hereby amended as follows :—

Amendment of section 6 of the principal Law.

(a) by the insertion at the end of paragraph (b) thereof of the following proviso, the semicolon (line 4) being substituted by a colon :—

"Provided that, if his service in such other public service is superannuated under the Federated Superannuation System for Universities or a similar insurance scheme, he has retired on one of the grounds mentioned in paragraphs (a), (c), (d), (e) and (f) of this section."

(b) by the insertion in the proviso thereto, immediately after the words "she has married" (line 3) of the words "or is about to marry".

3. The principal Law is hereby amended by the insertion therein, immediately after section 6, of the following section :—

Insertion of new section 6A in the principal Law.

"Increase of pension and additional pension in cases of retirement for ill-health with less than twenty years' service.

6A.—(1) Where an officer, on retiring from the service of Cyprus on medical evidence, under paragraph (e) of section 6 has more than ten years' but less than twenty years' pensionable service, the same pension and additional pension, if any, may be granted to him as might have been granted to him if his pensionable service had been twenty years.

(2) In the case of an officer whose pensionable service would, if he had continued to serve until five years after the retiring age, have been a period shorter than twenty years, sub-section (1) shall have effect as if for the last reference therein to twenty years there were substituted a reference to that shorter period.
