

THE STREET AND HOUSE TO HOUSE COLLECTIONS LAW.

(CAP. 164.)

48 Vol. II 384 STREET AND HOUSE TO HOUSE COLLECTIONS REGULATIONS.

1. These regulations may be cited as the Street and House to House Collections Regulations.
2. Every application to promote a collection shall be as in Form I in the Appendix hereto ; it shall contain true and accurate information on the particulars therein set out and shall not be considered, unless made not less than twenty days before the date on which it is proposed to make the collection.

Appendix,
Form I.
3. Every licence granted for the promotion of a collection shall be as in Form II in the Appendix hereto and shall be subject to such terms and conditions as may be imposed by the Licensing Authority regarding the matters therein set out and to such further terms and conditions as the Licensing Authority may think fit to impose.

Form II.
- 4.—(1) No collector shall make or engage in a collection, unless—

Form III.

 - (a) he is in possession of a certificate of authority as in Form III in the Appendix hereto, containing the particulars therein set out and duly signed by the promoter ; and
 - (b) he wears the badge approved in connection with the collection.

(2) No promoter shall permit any person to act as a collector unless he has issued to that person an approved badge and a certificate of authority as in paragraph (1) of this regulation provided ; and the promoter shall exercise due care and diligence to secure that every badge and certificate of authority issued by him is returned when the collection is completed or for any other reason the collector ceases to act as such.
5. If no box or other receptacle is to be used for a collection, the collector shall give a receipt duly stamped and signed by him in respect of all moneys collected.
6. Every collector shall ensure that all money collected is accounted for to the promoter.
- 7.—(1) Every promoter shall keep a true and accurate account of the proceeds of the collection and of all disbursements therefrom and shall furnish a copy thereof to the Licensing Authority not later than ten days after the completion of the collection :

Provided that the Licensing Authority may extend the period if satisfied that there are special reasons for so doing.

(2) The Licensing Authority may give or require the promoter to give such publicity to the statement of accounts as they may think fit and the promoter shall be bound to give such publicity accordingly.
8. When boxes or other receptacles are used for a collection, the promoter shall open the boxes or receptacles in the presence of the collector concerned and shall sign and hand to him a receipt showing the amount contained in such box or receptacle.
9. No person shall act as a collector who is under fifteen years of age.
