

COMPETITION AND CONSUMER ACT 2010

Competition and Consumer (ULLS Declaration) Extension 2018

1. Pursuant to section 152ALA(4) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (the Act), the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission extends the expiry date for the Unconditioned Local Loop Service (ULLS) declaration to 30 June 2024.

Note: the previous expiry date was 31 July 2019.

2. The ULLS is described in Annexure 1 to this instrument.

---

Rodney Graham Sims

Chair

Australian Competition and Consumer Commission

Dated: 23 November 2018

Annexure 1: Service Description for the ULLS

Service description

The Unconditioned Local Loop Service is the use of unconditioned communications wire between the boundary of a telecommunications network at an end-user's premises and a point on a telecommunications network that is a potential point of interconnection located at or associated with a customer access module and located on the end-user side of the customer access module.

Definitions

Where words or phrases used in this declaration are defined in the Act or the Telecommunications Act 1997, they have the meaning given in the relevant Act.