

The Ministry of Local Government and Modernisation

Meld. St. 30 (2019–2020) Report to the Storting (white paper)

An innovative public sector

Culture, leadership and competence

Meld. St. 30 (2019–2020) Report to the Storting (white paper)

An innovative public sector

Culture, leadership and competence

Table of Contents

1	Summary	5	4.3	Laws and regulations affect freedom of action	28
2	Public sector innovation	7	4.3.1	The current situation	28
2.1	Norway needs an innovative public sector	7	4.3.2	Assessment of the situation	29
2.2	Government policy for public sector innovation	8	4.3.3	The way forward	29
2.2.1	One goal and three principles for public sector innovation	8	4.4	Framework for decision-making in the State	30
2.2.2	Ten main concepts	8	4.4.1	The current situation	30
2.3	Challenges and opportunities in the decades ahead	9	4.4.2	Assessment of the situation	30
2.3.1	Demographic change	9	4.4.3	The way forward	30
2.3.2	Less economic room for manoeuvre	10	4.5	Forms of organisation and innovation	31
2.3.3	Climate and environmental challenges	11	4.5.1	The current situation	31
2.3.4	The Sustainable Development Goals	11	4.5.2	Assessment of the situation	32
2.4	Inclusive work process	12	4.5.3	The way forward	32
3	Definitions and the current situation	13	4.6	The Government's aims	33
3.1	What is public sector innovation? ..	13	5	Policy instruments for innovation	34
3.1.1	Definition of public sector innovation	13	5.1	The current situation	34
3.1.2	Identify opportunities and define needs instead of solutions	13	5.1.1	Agencies and policy instruments for public sector innovation	34
3.1.3	Incremental and radical innovation	15	5.1.2	Status of the use of policy instruments for public sector innovation	37
3.1.4	Transformative innovation	16	5.1.3	The Nordic countries' work on public sector innovation	37
3.1.5	Several types of innovation work together	17	5.1.4	Area review of business-oriented funding instruments	39
3.2	Well positioned for innovation	17	5.2	Assessment of the situation	39
3.2.1	Sectors and administrative levels ...	17	5.3	The way forward	40
3.2.2	A diverse local government sector	18	5.3.1	Council for public sector innovation	40
3.2.3	Risk aversion and incentives	19	5.3.2	Comprehensive and user-friendly access to policy instruments	42
3.3	Innovation in a time of crisis	20	5.4	The Government's aims	42
3.3.1	The COVID-19 pandemic	20	6	Digitalisation and new technology	43
3.3.2	Examples of innovation during the COVID-19 pandemic	21	6.1	The current situation	43
3.3.3	Learning from crises	23	6.1.1	Good digital infrastructure	43
4	Framework conditions for innovation	24	6.1.2	Exploiting new technology	43
4.1	Governance	24	6.1.3	Seamless digital services	44
4.1.1	The current situation	24	6.1.4	Digital ecosystems and innovation	45
4.1.2	Assessment of the situation	25	6.1.5	Digitalisation in the local government sector	45
4.1.3	The way forward	26	6.2	Assessment of the situation	46
4.2	Financial structures and incentives	26	6.3	The way forward	47
4.2.1	The current situation	26	6.3.1	Data-driven economy and innovation	48
4.2.2	Assessment of the situation	28	6.3.2	Quality of data	48
4.2.3	The way forward	28	6.4	The Government's aims	49