

Norwegian Ministry
of Justice and Public Security

Executive Summary

Meld. St. 10 (2016–2017) Report to the Storting (white paper)

Risk in a Safe and Secure Society

On Public Security

Meld. St. 10 (2016–2017) Report to the Storting (white paper)

Risk in a Safe and Secure Society

On Public Security

Translation from the Norwegian. For information only.

Contents

|          |                                                                                    |           |
|----------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| 1 | Background and scope for the white paper .....                              | 5  |
| 1.1      | Trends .....                                                                       | 5         |
| 1.2      | A resilient society .....                                                          | 7         |
| 1.3      | What is public security? .....                                                     | 8         |
| 1.4      | Living with risk .....                                                             | 9         |
| 2 | Eight core areas in the Government's workon public security .....      | 11 |
| 2.1      | Our ability to manage contingencies.....                                           | 11        |
| 2.2      | Digital vulnerabilities and ICT security .....                                     | 14        |
| 2.3      | Natural hazards .....                                                              | 16        |
| 2.4      | Serious crime.....                                                                 | 18        |
| 2.5      | Infectious diseases and hazardous substances:improved CBRNE preparedness ..... | 21        |
| 2.6      | Civil-military cooperation and total defence.....                                  | 24        |
| 2.7      | Attitudes, culture and leadership for effectivepublic security .....           | 26        |
| 2.8      | Learning from exercises and incidents.....                                         | 29        |
| 3 | Cross-sectoral public security .....                                        | 31 |

