[THE PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS' DEFAULT ACT, 1850]

ACT No. XII OF 1850

[22nd March, 1850]

For avoiding loss by the default of Public Accountants

Preamble. For better avoidance of loss through the default of public accountants ; It is enacted as follows:—

1. Public Accountants to give security. Every public accountant shall give security for the due discharge of the trusts of his office, and for the due account of all moneys which shall come into his possession or control, by reason of his office.

2. Amount and kind of security, and with what sureties. In default of any act having special reference to the office of any public accountant, the security given shall be of such amount and kind, real or personal, or both, and with such sureties (regard being had to the nature of the office), as shall be required by any ²rules made or to be made from time to time, by the authority by which each public accountant is appointed to his office,^{3*} * * .

4[3. “ Public accountant ” defined. For the purposes of sections 1 and 2 of this Act, the expression “ public accountant ” means any person who as Official Assignee or Trustee, or as sarbarahkar, is entrusted with the receipt, custody or control of any moneys or securities for money, or the management of any lands belonging to any other person or persons ; and for the purposes of sections 4 and 5 of this Act the expression shall also include any person who, by reason of any office held by him in the service of ⁵[Pakistan] is entrusted with the receipt, custody or control of any moneys or securities for money, or the management of any lands belonging to the⁶[Government].]

4. Prosecution of accountants and sureties. The person or persons at the head of the office to which any public accountant belongs may proceed against any such public accountant and his sureties for any loss or defalcation in his accounts, as if the amount thereof were an arrear of land revenue due to Government.
