

[PRESIDENTIAL DECREE NO. 305, October 02, 1973]

AMENDING CERTAIN SECTIONS OF THE NATIONAL INTERNAL REVENUE CODE GOVERNING EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

WHEREAS, under existing law, educational institutions are not placed at par for taxation purposes as some are subject to tax and others are not subject to tax;

WHEREAS, in line with the provisions of the New Constitution removing the exemptions of educational institutions from real estate taxes, their exemption from income tax should likewise be removed, as provided under existing laws;

WHEREAS, to achieve simplicity in implementation, there should be imposed a fixed rate of tax on all income of educational institutions; and

WHEREAS, in order to achieve improvements in educational facilities and expansion of educational activities, the re-investment of profits or surplus necessary therefrom should be encouraged;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FERDINAND E. MARCOS, President of the Philippines, by virtue of the powers in me vested by the Constitution as Commander-in-Chief of all the Armed Forces of the Philippines, and pursuant to Proclamation No. 1081, dated September 21, 1972, and General Order No. 1, dated September 22, 1972, as amended, do hereby order and decree that certain sections of the National Internal Revenue Code, as amended, be further amended, to read as follows:

"SEC. 24. Rates of tax on corporations.

"(a) Tax on domestic corporations.

"Private educational institutions, whether stock or nonstock, shall pay a tax of ten percent of their taxable net income from the operation of the school, related school activities, and on their passive investment income consisting of interest, dividends, royalties, and the like: Provided, however, That dividends received by a private educational institution, whether stock or nonstock, from a domestic or resident foreign corporation shall be subject to the partial exclusion of intercorporate dividends provided under Section 29 (c) of this Title, under the conditions imposed in the said subsection.
