SECTION 4. STEPS IN DOING BUSINESS IN VALENZUELA CITY.

Before starting any type of business in Valenzuela, a business license must be first secured, certifying that the operations and transactions are legal and legitimate.

After securing a business license, registrants are assumed to have complied and will continue to comply with all the Post-audit requirements. An inspection shall be conducted within a month following the release of the business license to ensure full compliance. Any violation of conditions of approval is sufficient ground for the revocation of the business license.

In consonance with the purpose of the 3S Program, the initial requirements for any and all application in the offices mentioned in Section 2 hereof shall be simplified and limited.

The steps in doing business in Valenzuela City shall comprise of the following:

1. Receiving — Submission of duly accomplished application form and requirements with the concerned office;
2. Assessment and Payment — Application will be processed by the Evaluation Sector of the office then proceed to pay the Order of Payment issued at the Cashier/Payment Division;
3. Releasing — Present Order of Payment for the issuance of permits and/or licenses.
