

[ POEA ADVISORY NO. 21, S. 2011, April 27, 2011 ]

DFA DECLARATION OF ALERT LEVEL 2 FOR SYRIA

In relation to the issuance of a Travel Advisory by the Department of Foreign Affairs raising the crisis alert to Alert Level 2 due to the continuing political tension in Syria, the processing and deployment of all newly hired workers to the said country shall be deferred until such time that the political and security condition thereat has normalized.

Under Alert Level 2, only returning workers will be allowed to travel back to Syria, provided that they execute an affidavit that they voluntarily undertake such travel to resume their employment despite being fully aware of the security risk in the said country.

For immediate and strict compliance.
