

[BSP CIRCULAR NO. 685, S. OF 2010, April 07, 2010]

RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE RECOGNITION AND DERECOGNITION OF MICROFINANCE INSTITUTION RATING AGENCIES

SECTION 1. Statement of Policy - Third-party ratings of financial institutions provide an independent assessment which will ultimately benefit stakeholders, including the management of the covered financial institution. For microfinance institutions, the enhanced transparency and independent assessment can materially improve access to capital of qualified institutions and generate a useful benchmark vis-à-vis other microfinance institutions. As a matter of policy, the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (BSP) supports an enabling environment for the appropriate use of objective, credible and competent third-party ratings of microfinance institutions.

Toward this end, the following rules and regulations that shall govern the recognition/ derecognition of Microfinance Institution Rating Agencies (MIRA), particularly for those that provide ratings for banks with microfinance operations, are hereby prescribed.

SECTION 2. Pre-Qualification Requirements. The application of a MIRA for BSP recognition shall be submitted to the Supervision and Examination Sector (SES) of the BSP together with the following information/documents:

A. An undertaking that:

1. the MIRA shall comply with regulations, directives and instructions which the BSP may issue from time to time; and
2. the MIRA shall notify the BSP in writing of any material changes within the organization (such as but not limited to changes in management or organizational structure, rating personnel, modifications of its rating practices and financial deterioration) that may affect its ability to provide reliable and credible ratings.

B. Other documents/information:

1. Brief history of the MIRA, major rating activities handled including information on the name of the client, type of instruments rated, size and year of issue;
2. Audited financial statements for the past three (3) years and such other information that may be considered relevant for selection purposes;
3. List of major stockholders/partners (owning at least 10% of the voting stocks of the MIRA directly or together with relatives within the 1st degree of consanguinity or affinity);

4. List of directors, officers, members of the rating committee and professional analytical staff of the MIRA; including their qualifications, experience related to rating activities, directorship and shareholdings in the MIRA and in other companies, if any;

5. List of subsidiaries and affiliates including their line of business and the nature of interest of the MIRA and in these companies;

6. Details of the denial of a previous request for recognition, if any (such as application date, date of denial, reason for denial, etc.); and

7. Details of all previous and pending litigations connected with the securities market against the MIRA, its directors, officers, stockholders, members of the rating committee and professional analytical staff, if any.

SECTION 3. Minimum Eligibility Criteria – The BSP will review the application based on the following basic principles:

1. The proposed rating framework that will be used by the applicant-MIRA reflects all the material facets of microfinance operations, its attendant risks and operational challenges.

2. The applicant-MIRA demonstrates the technical capability, experience and organization to provide microfinance ratings that are objective, credible and transparent.

Based on the above principles, the BSP, through the Monetary Board, may officially recognize a MIRA upon satisfaction of the following requirements. The official recognition shall be valid for a period of three years and may be renewed upon assessment that the following requirements are satisfied.

A. Organizational Structure

1. A MIRA must be duly registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and have the necessary permits to operate; and

2. A MIRA must have at least five (5) years track record in the issuance of reliable and credible ratings with particular experience in microfinance.

3. An international MIRA that will undertake local ratings shall have a representative office in the Philippines.

B. Resources

Human Resources

1. A MIRA must be staffed by full-time analysts who have the demonstrated capability to competently assess the credit worthiness of a microfinance institution (MFI). The analysts referred herein preclude support staff engaged in other functions such as, but not limited to, marketing and administration;

2. A MIRA must have a sufficient number of analysts so as to allow substantive interaction with the senior management and operating units of the assessed/rated entities as a routine component of the surveillance process;
3. The MIRA shall establish a Rating Committee, independent of its analysts, whose members have unquestionable expertise in the rating business, majority of whom must have at least five (5) years direct professional experience in rating institutions;
4. The directors of the MIRA must possess a high degree of competency equipped with the appropriate education and relevant experience in the rating business;
5. The directors, officers, members of the Rating Committee and professional analytical staff of the MIRA have not at any time been convicted of any offense involving moral turpitude or violation of the Securities Regulation Code; and
6. The directors, officers, members of the Rating Committee and professional analytical staff of the MIRA are not currently involved as a defendant in any litigation connected with violations of the Securities Regulation Code nor included in the BSP watchlist.

Financial resources

1. The MIRA must have the financial capability to support viable operations such as, but not limited to, the necessary technology and infrastructure to ensure the effective processing of data/information and the timely release of reliable and credible ratings; and
2. The MIRA must have financial independence that will allow it to operate free from economic and political pressures.

C. Objectivity

1. The MIRA must employ an assessment methodology which is accepted as a global standard. Where the MIRA uses its own proprietary framework, said methodology must have been in market use for at least 3 years with demonstrable credibility;
2. The assessment methodology used by the MIRA must be based both on qualitative and quantitative approaches; and
3. Said assessment methodology must be subjected to periodic review to ensure that it is responsive to changes in the operations of assessed/rated entities.

D. Independence

1. The MIRA must be free from control of and undue influence by the entities it assesses/rates;
2. The assessment process must be free from ownership pressures to allow the management of the MIRA to exercise independent professional judgment;
3. Persons directly involved in the assessment process of the MIRA are free from conflicts of interest with assessed/rated entities; and
