

[DECS ORDER NO. 13, s. 1998, January 30, 1998]

REVISED RULES AND REGULATIONS ON THE TEACHING OF RELIGION IN PUBLIC ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY SCHOOLS

1. Declaration of Policy — It is declared policy of the State in conformity with the mandate of the Constitution, to encourage and promote the teaching of religion to children in public elementary and high schools within the regular class hours. For the State is cognizant of the vital role that the teaching of religion assumes in citizen formation, particularly the molding of our youth. Hence, the State recognizes the necessity of religious instruction not only in the private school but also in public schools. For these purposes, this Department shall provide hereunder the mechanics to enable the teaching of religion in all public elementary and high schools over the country, fully aware in the process that the Constitution prohibits the free exercise thereof. Furthermore, the implementation of this Order should not entail additional cost to the government.

2. Coverage — This Order shall apply to all public elementary and high schools in the Philippines.

3. Definition of Terms — As used in this Order, the following terms shall mean:

a. Religion — an institutionalized systems of beliefs, attitudes and practices.

b. Values education — the integration into the school curriculum of universally accepted as well as Filipino human, social, moral, political, economic and cultural values.

c. Optional religious instruction — refers to the religion classes conducted in the public elementary and high schools for students or pupils whose parents opted to exercise their right to request religious instruction for their children or ward. The optional character of religious instruction in public schools is in reference to the parents or guardians of the children, who are free to request or not to request that the children under their care be instructed in the religion of their choice. It is not option for the Principal or school heads to either accept or reject the formal request of the parents to have their children instructed in the religion of their choice during regular hours.

d. Regular class hours — refers to the regular or normal scheduled period of instruction or laboratory work for student.

e. Class Period — the average length of time scheduled for one session or instructional period in a course.

4. The Teachers/Instructors — The religious teachers/instructors who teach religion classes in the public elementary and high schools shall be designated by their
