

[DAR ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER NO. 11, April 26, 1989]

RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE ACCREDITATION OF NON-GOVERNMENT ORGANIZATION (NGOs) PARTICIPATING IN DAR PROGRAMS

I Rationale

The participation and involvement of non-government organizations in development is guaranteed by the Constitution. Section 16 of Article XIII provides that the right of the people and their organizations to effective and reasonable participation at all levels of political social and economic decision-making shall be respected. To this end, the NEDA Board, in Resolution No 2, Series of 1989, has prescribed general guidelines for Government Organization and Non-Government Organization (GO-NGO) collaboration. The resolution likewise specifies that all line agencies at various levels of government shall be made responsible for accrediting NGOs.

Conformably with the spirit of the Constitution and the aforesaid Board resolution and to provide the DAR with information on the technical and professional capabilities of NGOs for purposes of their involvement in the implementation of the programs and projects of CARP these rules and regulations on accreditation of NGOs are hereby issued.

II Objectives

1. To identify NGOs that will best respond to the needs of CARP implementation;
2. To establish an active file of NGOs based on their technical and professional expertise;
3. To enhance GO-NGO partnership in programs that benefit the beneficiaries of the CARP.

III
Definition of Terms

Non-Government Organizations (NGOs) refers to a broad category of private non-profit organizations that are committed to the task of socio-economic development and
