The General Conference of the International Labour Organisation,

Having been convened at Geneva by the Governing Body of the International Labour Office, and having met in its Forty-sixth Session on 6 June 1962; and

Having decided upon the adoption of proposals for the substitution, in the provisions of the Constitution of the International Labour Organisation relating to membership of the Governing Body, of the figures "forty-eight" and "twenty-four" for the figures "forty" and "twenty", and of the figure "twelve" for the figure "ten" except in paragraph 2 of article 7 which shall provide for ten Members of chief industrial importance and fourteen elected members, a question which is the eighth item on the agenda of the session, adopts this twenty-second day of June of the year one thousand nine hundred and sixty-two the following instrument for the amendment of the Constitution of the International Labour Organisation, which may be cited as the Constitution of the International Labour Organisation Instrument of Amendment, 1962:

ARTICLE 1

In the text of the Constitution of the International Labour Organisation as at present in force—

(a) the figures "forty-eight" and "twenty-four" shall be substituted for the figures "forty" and "twenty" in paragraphs 1 and 2 of article 7;

(b) the figure "twelve" shall be substituted for the figure "ten" paragraph 1 of article 7;

(c) the figure "fourteen" shall be substituted for the figure "ten" in the reference contained in paragraph 2 of article 7 of the persons to be appointed by Members selected for that purpose by Government delegates to the Conference;

(d) the sentence "Two Employers' representatives and two Workers' representative shall belong to non-European States" shall be deleted from paragraph 4 of article 7.

ARTICLE 2

As from the date of the coming into force of this Instrument of Amendment the Constitution of the International Labour Organisation shall have effect as amended in accordance with the preceding Article.
