A. Pre-Deployment

IV. POLICY GUIDELINES

1. The UNSAS examination shall be administered by the PNP Selection Committee assisted by the Secretariat.

2. UNSAT examination shall be administered in the Philippines by UN Representatives designated by the UNDPKO and to be assisted by the members of the PNP Selection Committee and Secretariat. Only those who passed the UNSAS screening process shall be allowed to take the UNSAT.

3. The names of applicants who successfully passed the UNSAT examination will be placed in a priority list ranked according to the results of their UNSAT examination and the number of UN mission that he has been detailed to.

4. All UNSAT passers shall compose the PNP UN Stand-by List and while waiting for their UN detail in the mission area, they shall return to their mother units to render regular police duties.

5. All PNP personnel included in the PNP UN stand-by List who has no mission experience shall undergo a Pre-Departure Orientation Seminar (PDOS), conducted by the PNP Training Service.

6. The composition of the PNP Contingent for detail to international peacekeeping operations shall be 40% PCOs and 60% PNCOs, whenever practicable. The inclusion of women police for deployment to UN mission shall be encouraged.

7. Detail of PNP personnel included in the standby list shall be done in the following sequence:

a. First priority will be given to those without previous UN mission experience.

b. Priority for those who have previous UN Mission experience shall be done according to the number of missions they have been detailed, that is, those with fewer missions shall have priority over those with more missions. However, if there is an invitation for detail in a new mission area where there are no PNP personnel detailed yet, five (5) percent of the group shall come from those with previous mission/s experience.

8. In case all the PNP personnel in the stand-by list are detailed in the mission area and pending the conduct of a new UNSAS and UNSAT examinations, an interim stand-by group shall be formed from among those who recently ended their mission provided that it is not more than eighteen months (18) from the date of their end of mission. Priority of detail shall be those who have the least number of deployments.

9. Any qualified personnel who will request deferment from scheduled detail would be ranked last in the standby list prepared by the PNP Selection Committee, provided he/ she can justify the reason for such deferment of which shall be deliberated upon and approved by the said committee.

10. Any qualified personnel who will request for second deferment although such request is justified, shall be deleted from the standby list.

11. PNP personnel who are included in the stand by list for passing the UNSAT examination and those already serving in any international peacekeeping mission shall not be considered for secondment. All application for secondment to international organization shall be deliberated by the Committee and approved by the Chief, PNP.

12. The secondment of PNP personnel with an international organization shall be subject the approval of the mother and the receiving agency. In case of a secondment exceeding a one year period, the approval of the Civil Service Commission shall be required. However, it should not exceed a maximum period of three (3) years except otherwise provided for by law or as required under bilateral/multilateral agreements.

13. Prior to their detail, all PNP personnel shall execute an undertaking stating the following:

a. That he/she is committing himself/herself to observe exemplary behavior and discipline while in the mission area. He/she will be guided by the PNP Code of Ethics and Professional Conduct. He/she shall likewise respect the PNP Chain of Command and perform other tasks that will bring honor and prestige to the Philippines;

b. That he/she shall not commit any acts or omissions that will cause
