July 08, 1997 ]

SPECIAL PERMITS FOR OUT-OF-LINE OPERATIONS AND SPECIAL HOLIDAYS

By their essential nature, Special Permits for out-of line operations and special holidays are supposed to meet an extraordinary increase in passenger volume owing to traditional holidays such as All Saints Day, Holy Week, Christmas season and other special holidays such as national elections, including emergencies like transport strikes.

4. Celebrations such as local religious and civic festivities and town fiestas, except those where there is traditionally a heavy passenger volume to the site of the festivities during a fixed period such as the Bicol Peñafrancia festivities, are not acceptable grounds for the issuance of Special Permits unless it is demonstrated by the applicants/petitioners that there are actual special reasons necessitating the grant of special permits subject to verification by the Board through its regional
