

SECOND DIVISION

[ G.R. No. 218575, October 04, 2017 ]

PEOPLE OF THE PHILIPPINES, PLAINTIFF-APPELLEE, VS.
FRANCIS URSUA Y BERNAL, ACCUSED-APPELLANT.

DECISION

PERALTA, J.:

This is an appeal from the July 17, 2014 Decision<sup>[1]</sup> of the Court of Appeals (CA) in CA-G.R. CR-HC No. 06105, which affirmed with modification the November 22, 2012 Decision<sup>[2]</sup> of the Regional Trial Court (RTC) Branch 261, Pasig City, convicting accused-appellant Francis Ursua y Bernal (Ursua) of qualified rape and acts of lasciviousness.

AAA was born on January 16, 1992<sup>[3]</sup> and is accused-appellant Ursua's biological daughter. Together with her father and elder brother, BBB, she lived in a small house with one room, but without kitchen and living room (sola).

Around 12:00 midnight on January 17, 2006, Ursua, who was drunk, woke up AAA and instructed her to buy a porridge (lugaw). After eating, he told her to turn off the light and close the door. As they were sleeping in one bed, he undressed her, touched her vagina, and held her breast. He then removed his short pants and brief, moved on top of her, pulled his penis, and inserted it into her vagina. He told her not to make any noise. Consequently, she merely cried and did not shout, resist, or ask her father to stop. After the acts were done, they went to sleep.

Early dawn the next day, Ursua repeated the dastardly acts on AAA. He held her vagina and breast and inserted his penis into her vagina. Again, she did not ask for any help. She did not shout because her father almost hit her ("muntik na po nya akong sapakin"). He told her not to make any noise; hence, she just cried. Later in the evening, around 10 p.m., Ursua once more held AAA's breasts and vagina and placed himself on top of her ("pinatong po nya uliyong, pumatong po uli sya sa akin").<sup>[4]</sup>

From January 17 to 18, 2006, BBB was in the street, selling in the market. On January 19, 2006, AAA left their house and went to her godfather (ninong), CCC. She told him what happened between her and Ursua. She did not return to their house and stayed with her ninong and cousins in a place under the Pasig City Hall.

On November 14, 2006, AAA, assisted by a liaison officer of the Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD), executed a sworn statement before the Women and Children Concern Unit of the Pasig City Police Station.<sup>[5]</sup> Based on the Request for Genital Examination by the police station, PSI Marianne Ebdane, a Medico-Legal Officer of the Philippine National Police Crime Laboratory in Camp

Crame, Quezon City, conducted a medical examination of AAA on November 9, 2006. After finding that there were deep healed laceration at 7 o'clock position and shallow healed lacerations at 2, 3 and 9 o'clock positions, she concluded that there is a clear evidence of remote history of blunt force or penetrating trauma to AAA's hymen.<sup>[6]</sup> She interviewed AAA, who disclosed that it was caused by her father who inserted his organ into her vagina.

Charges for qualified rape<sup>[7]</sup> were then filed against Ursua. The three Informations, all dated February 20, 2007, alleged:

Criminal Case No. 134832-H

On or about January 17, 2006, in Pasig City and within the jurisdiction of this Honorable Court, the accused, by means of force and intimidation, did then and there willfully, unlawfully and feloniously had sexual intercourse with one [AAA], 14 years old, a minor and his daughter, against her will and consent.

Contrary to law.<sup>[8]</sup>

Criminal Case No. 134833-H

On or about January 18, 2006, at about 5:00 a.m., in Pasig City and within the jurisdiction of this Honorable Court, the accused, by means of force and intimidation, did then and there willfully, unlawfully and feloniously had sexual intercourse with one [AAA], 14 years old, a minor and his daughter, against her will and consent.

Contrary to law.<sup>[9]</sup>

Criminal Case No. 134834-H

On or about January 18, 2006, at about 10:00 p.m., in Pasig City and within the jurisdiction of this Honorable Court, the accused, by means of force and intimidation, did then and there willfully, unlawfully and feloniously had sexual intercourse with one [AAA], 14 years old, a minor and his daughter, against her will and consent.

Contrary to law.<sup>[10]</sup>

In his arraignment, Ursua pleaded not guilty. Trial ensued.

Ursua denied having any carnal knowledge of AAA. He recalled that around 9:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. on January 17, 2006 he arrived at the house after working at their neighbor's place. At that time, AAA and BBB were at the house. He was living only with them because he was already separated from his wife for a long time. He requested his children to buy lugaw. When they returned, he ate it and rested. He just heard that they closed the door and slept beside him. With lights on, BBB slept at the middle between him and AAA. While they were asleep, he did not notice anything.

When Ursua woke up at 5:00 a.m. on January 18, 2006, BBB was already awake, while AAA was still asleep. He brought BBB to the market to work at his (Ursua) cousin's vegetable store. By 7:00 a.m., he returned to their house to pick up AAA and bring her to school. Afterwards, he went to work and arrived at their house around 12:00 midnight. By that time, his two children were already sleeping.

On January 19, 2006, AAA attended school and proceeded directly to CCC's store located under the Pasig City Hall. She stayed there from 12:00 p.m. until Ursua fetched her around 9:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. Subsequently, however, AAA did not return home anymore. Since September 2006, she had been staying in the DSWD.

Ursua claimed that AAA filed the cases against him because he prevented her from going to CCC. The reason being that she became especially close to her godfather. Whenever he fetched her, he oftentimes saw him embracing her and that sometimes she was sitting on his lap. Due to the prohibition, AAA would leave the house whenever they were asleep. They would wake up without AAA and just see her already at CCC's place.

Testifying for his father, BBB declared that on January 17, 2006, he was at home with AAA, while his father was working as a helper. Around 8:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m., Ursua arrived and told them to buy food. After which, they all ate the lugaw and slept around 10:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m. The house they were residing at was only small and with one bed. Ursua and AAA slept on his either side. While sleeping, he did not feel or notice anything unusual. They woke up at 5 a.m. Considering that the light was on, he did not notice if his father or sister was already awake. He does not know the reason why AAA would file a case against their father and why she would lie about it. Prior to the alleged incident on January 17, 2006, he did not notice any special treatment or any unusual behavior of his father against his sister. There was no misunderstanding between them. He affirmed that she frequented the shop of CCC.

On November 22, 2012, Ursua was convicted of three (3) counts of qualified rape. The fallo of the Decision reads:

WHEREFORE, premises considered, there being proof beyond reasonable doubt that accused FRANCIS URSUA y Bernal has committed the crime of Qualified Rape (3 counts) under Article 266-A in relation to Article 266-B, par. 5(1) of the Revised Penal Code and in further relation to Sec. 5(a) of R.A. 8369 as charged, the Court hereby pronounces him GUILTY beyond reasonable doubt and, there being aggravating circumstances, hereby sentences him to suffer the penalty of 3 counts of RECLUSION PERPETUA. Accused is ordered to pay AAA the amount of Php150,000.00 by way of civil indemnity; Php75,000.00 as moral damages and Php60,000.00 as exemplary damages.

SO ORDERED.<sup>[11]</sup>

The trial court found AAA as a witness and her testimony credible. She positively identified her father as the one who raped her and testified consistently and convincingly on the material facts, including the dates and time, that transpired in the alleged incidents. In addition, PSI Ebdane presented and explained her medico-legal report to corroborate AAA's declaration that she was sexually molested. The court was unconvinced by the defense of alibi and denial of Ursua. Even if corroborated by his son, the defense was not given credence as it was unsubstantiated and there was no doubt that he could be at the scene of the crime at the time the alleged incidents happened.

On appeal, the CA ruled that Ursua's denial cannot overcome the positive testimony of AAA. She was spontaneous and credible as she gave clear and categorical narration of events and was firm and steadfast in her accusations. However, in view of the failure of the prosecution to prove the fact of penile penetration with regard to the alleged rape that occurred in the evening of January 18, 2006, the appellate court downgraded the offense to acts of lasciviousness.<sup>[12]</sup> It disposed:

WHEREFORE, premises considered, the appeal is hereby DENIED. The conviction of the Accused-Appellant Francis Ursua y Bernal for the two (2) counts of rape (Criminal Case No. 134832-H and Criminal Case No. 134833-H) is AFFIRMED. The third (Criminal Case No. 134834-H) count of rape is MODIFIED to ACTS OF LASCIVIOUSNESS and accused-appellant is sentenced to suffer the penalty of reclusion perpetua as maximum period and ordered to pay AAA moral damages of P15,000.00; civil indemnity of P20,000.00 and exemplary damages of P15,000.00.

SO ORDERED.<sup>[13]</sup>

Before Us, the People, as represented by the Office of the Solicitor General, manifested that it would not file a Supplemental Brief as the Appellee's Brief filed before the CA adequately addressed the issues and arguments raised in this case.<sup>[14]</sup> Per the Court's Resolution dated March 16, 2016, Ursua was deemed to have waived the filing of the required brief. It appeared that he did not file a supplemental brief pursuant to the Resolution<sup>[15]</sup> dated July 27, 2015, within the period fixed therein which expired on October 17, 2015.

There is no reason to reverse the judgment of conviction, but a modification of the penalties imposed, the damages awarded, and the nomenclature of the offense committed, is in order.

We accord high respect and conclusiveness on the trial court's calibration of the testimonies of the witnesses and the conclusions derived therefrom when no glaring errors, gross misapprehension of facts, and speculative, arbitrary, and unsupported conclusions can be gathered from such findings. Indeed, trial courts are in a better position to decide the question of credibility, having heard the witnesses themselves and observed their deportment and manner of testifying during trial, and the rule finds an even more stringent application where the trial court's findings are sustained by the CA.<sup>[16]</sup>

However, the assailed CA decision is modified as to the penalty imposed and the damages awarded in Criminal Cases No. 134832-H and 134833-H. With respect to the two (2) counts of qualified rape by sexual intercourse, Ursua is sentenced to suffer the penalty of two (2) counts of reclusion perpetua without eligibility for parole,<sup>[17]</sup> and is ordered to pay AAA the amounts of P100,000.00 as civil indemnity, P100,000.00 as moral damages and P100,000.00 as exemplary damages for each count, in line with current jurisprudence.<sup>[18]</sup>

As to the penalty for qualified rape under paragraph 1, Article 266-A of the RPC, Article 266-B (1) of the RPC provides that the death penalty shall be imposed if the victim is under eighteen (18) years of age and the offender is the parent. Applying R.A. No. 9346,<sup>[19]</sup> the CA correctly imposed the penalty of reclusion perpetua, but it should be specified that it is without eligibility for parole. This is pursuant to A.M. No. 15-08-02-SC which states that "[w]hen circumstances are present warranting the imposition of the death penalty, but this penalty is not imposed because of R.A. No. 9346, the qualification 'without eligibility for parole' shall be used to qualify reclusion perpetua in order to emphasize that the accused should have been sentenced to suffer the death penalty had it not been for R.A. No. 9346." Meanwhile, the damages awarded by the RTC, as affirmed by the CA, should be modified in view of People v. Jugueta<sup>[20]</sup> where it was held that in cases of qualified rape where the imposable penalty is death but the same is reduced to reclusion perpetua because of R.A. No. 9346, the amounts of civil indemnity, moral damages and exemplary damages shall be in the amount of P100,000.00 each.<sup>[21]</sup>

As regards Criminal Case No. 134834-H, the CA decision is likewise modified as to the nomenclature of the offense, the penalty imposed and the damages awarded.

Since AAA merely testified that her father touched her breasts and vagina, and thereafter placed himself on top of her ("pumatong siya"), and there was no specific mention of a penetration of Ursua's penis or fingers into AAA's vagina, the CA correctly ruled that Ursua cannot be held liable for rape by sexual intercourse as charged in the Information in Criminal Case No. 134834-H. Be that as it may, Ursua can still be convicted of sexual abuse under Section 5(b), Article III of R.A. No. 7610<sup>[22]</sup> pursuant to the variance doctrine under Sections 4 and 5, Rule 120<sup>[23]</sup> of the Rules of Court, because the same offense was proved during trial and is necessarily included in acts of lasciviousness under Article 336 of the RPC which, under settled jurisprudence,<sup>[24]</sup> is necessarily included in the crime of rape.<sup>[25]</sup>

Contrary to the CA's ruling that Ursua is, at the most, liable for one (1) count of acts of lasciviousness under Article 336 of the RPC, in relation to Section 5(b), Article III of R.A. No. 7610 due to the prosecution's failure to prove the fact of carnal knowledge, We rule that the proper nomenclature of the offense is sexual abuse under Section 5(b), Article III of R.A. No. 7610. This is consistent with the CA's discussion on the prosecution's failure to prove the fact of carnal knowledge in Criminal Case No. 134834-H:

The elements of sexual abuse under Section 5(b), Article III of Republic Act No. 7610 are as follows:

1. The accused commit the act of sexual intercourse or lascivious conduct.
2. The said act is performed with a child exploited in prostitution or subjected to sexual abuse.
3. The child, whether male or female, is below 18 years of age.

First, accused-appellant's touching of AAA's breasts and vagina with lewd designs constitute lascivious conduct defined in Section
