

CHAPTER 72.

GUIDES' PROHIBITION.

ARRANGEMENT OF SECTIONS.

SECTION.

1. Short title.
2. Interpretation.
3. Prohibition of guides.
4. Accosting, etc., with a view to employment as a guide.
5. (1) Parent or master inciting, etc., others to act as guide, etc.
(2) Proviso as to second or more offences.
6. Summary offences.
7. Use of money found on person convicted for payment of costs.
8. Grant of licences to guides.
9. Rules.

CHAPTER 72.

GUIDES' PROHIBITION.

5 of 1917. An Ordinance to prohibit persons acting as guides within the City of Freetown.

[20TH DECEMBER, 1917].

Short title.

*

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Guides' (Prohibition) Ordinance, and shall extend to the City of Freetown (and to any other place to which the Governor in Council may by Order apply it).

Interpretation.

2. In this Ordinance:

“guide” means and includes any person who acts as a guide, conductor, leader, or tout, or in any similar capacity, for any other person, either for payment or other reward of any kind whatsoever;

“parent” means and includes any parent or guardian (whether legal or customary) or any person acting in loco parentis to another person;

“master” includes any employer.

Prohibition of guides.

3. Every person wandering, loitering or being in the public streets, public highways, or in any place of public or private resort or otherwise, for the purpose of acting, or being employed

* Not yet applied to any place other than Freetown.