Proper records to be kept

3. A registered person shall ensure that proper and accurate records are kept to enable proper aftercare and service for his patients and shall, in addition, cause to be recorded therein in respect of each patient the particulars required by such guidelines as the Board may, from time to time, determine.

Display of certificate of registration and practising certificate

4. A registered person shall conspicuously display —

- (a) his certificate of registration and his current practising certificate at his principal place of practice as a traditional Chinese medicine practitioner; and
- (b) a certified true copy of each of such certificates at all his other places of practice as a traditional Chinese medicine practitioner.

Advertising

5. A registered person shall not advertise his skills or practice as a traditional Chinese medicine practitioner, or endorse any product related to traditional Chinese medicine, except in accordance with such guidelines as the Board may, from time to time, determine or in such manner as the Board may approve.

Use of qualifications entered in Register and approved titles, etc.
