PART II

TRANSFER OF PROPERTIES, RIGHTS, LIABILITIES AND EMPLOYEES

Transfer to successor company, successor Authority and Government of property, rights and liabilities

3.—(1) On the appointed day, the property, rights and liabilities comprised in the undertaking of the Authority shall become, by virtue of this section and without further assurance, the property, rights and liabilities of —

- (a) the successor company nominated for the purposes of this section by the Minister;
- (b) the successor Authority; and
- (c) the Government, in such manner of distribution and allocation as may be determined by the Minister and agreed to by the Minister for Finance.

(2) Any immovable property to be transferred to and vested in the successor company or the successor Authority under subsection (1) shall be held by the successor company or the successor Authority upon such tenure and subject to such conditions as the President may determine.

(3) If any question arises as to whether any particular property, right or liability of the Authority has been transferred to or vested in the successor company, the successor Authority or the Government under this Act, a certificate under the hand of the Minister for Finance shall be conclusive evidence that the property, right or liability was or was not so transferred or vested.

(8) In subsections (5) and (6), references to any foreign property, right or liability are references, respectively, to any property, right or liability comprised in the undertaking of the Authority in respect of which any issue arising in any proceedings would have been determined (in accordance with the rules of conflict of laws) by reference to the law of a country or territory outside Singapore.
