such form as the court may direct by filing and by serving on the other party, an affidavit exhibiting a list of documents as specified by the Registrar.

- (b) any class of documents so specified or described in the application, is or has at any time been in his possession, custody or power, and if not then in his possession, custody or power, when he parted with it and what has become of it.

(3) Upon the making of an order under paragraph (1) or (2), the court may, if a party states in his affidavit or sworn statement that a document or class of documents is in his possession, custody or power, direct the party to produce and exhibit a copy or copies of the document or class of documents stated in the affidavit or sworn statement in such manner as the court may direct.

(4) An application for an order under this rule must be in such form as the Registrar may direct and be supported by an affidavit or a sworn statement stating the belief of the applicant that the party from whom discovery is sought under this rule had or has in his possession, custody or power, the document or class of documents specified in the application.

(2) Without prejudice to paragraph (1), but subject to rule 2H, the court may, on the application of any party in maintenance proceedings, order any other party to permit the party who makes the application to inspect any documents in the possession, custody or power of that other party in respect of which discovery has been given under rule 2A or pursuant to any order made under this rule.

(3) In particular, on the making of an order under rule 2A(2), the court may, in lieu of making an order under rule 2A(3), make such orders for the production of the relevant documents for inspection at such time and place, and in such manner, as it thinks fit.

(2) Such affidavit shall state whether or not there are any erasures, interlineations or alterations in the original books, and if so, what erasures, interlineations or alterations there are.
