SINGAPORE CIVIL DEFENCE FORCE LONG
SERVICE AND GOOD CONDUCT MEDAL RULES 1994

It is hereby notified for general information that the President, having been pleased to approve the institution of a medal to be styled “The Singapore Civil Defence Force Long Service and Good Conduct Medal”, hereby makes the following Rules:

1. These Rules may be cited as the Singapore Civil Defence Force Long Service and Good Conduct Medal Rules 1994 and shall come into operation on 1st April 1994.

2.—(1) In these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires —

“eligible person” means any person who is or who was —

- (a) an officer appointed under or a serviceman enlisted in the Singapore Civil Defence Force under section 7(1) of the Civil Defence Act (Cap. 42);
- (b) an officer deemed to be appointed under the Civil Defence Act by virtue of section 60 of the Fire Safety Act (Cap. 109A);
- (c) an auxiliary member recruited on a part-time basis under section 7(2) of the Civil Defence Act;
- (d) a person deemed to have been enlisted in the Singapore Civil Defence Force under section 9(1) of the Civil Defence Act and is or was rendering his service in the Force;

“Medal” means the Singapore Civil Defence Force Long Service and Good Conduct Medal;

“qualifying service” means all the time an officer or serviceman has rendered —

- (a) full-time continuous service in the Singapore Civil Defence Force, whether temporary, regular, mobilised or national service;
- (b) full-time continuous service in the Singapore Armed Forces or the Singapore Police Service whether temporary, regular, mobilised or national service preceding service in the Singapore Civil Defence Force;
- (c) part-time service in the Singapore Civil Defence Force or the Singapore Police Service;
- (d) reserve service in the Singapore Civil Defence Force, the Singapore Armed Forces or the Singapore Police Service provided no account shall be taken of any period during which he was exempted from such reserve service;

“Singapore Armed Forces” means the force raised and maintained in accordance with the Singapore Armed Forces Act (Cap. 295);

“Singapore Civil Defence Force” means the force raised and maintained in accordance with the Civil Defence Act (Cap. 42);

“Singapore Police Service” has the same meaning as in the Singapore Police Service Long Service and Good Conduct Medal Rules 1994 (G.N. No. S 123/94).

(2) For the purpose of these Rules, unless the contrary intention appears, “service” means full-time service, reserve service, regular service, mobilised service or voluntary service.

(3) References in these Rules to a period of reserve service rendered are references to the period in which such person was liable for reserve service.

3. A medal to be known as “The Singapore Civil Defence Force Long Service and Good Conduct Medal” may be awarded to an eligible person in recognition of his long and exemplary service and good conduct in the Singapore Civil Defence Force, subject to the minimum requirement in rule 4.

4.—(1) An eligible person shall qualify for the award of the Medal if he has completed 12 years of continuous qualifying service.

(2) A Clasp may be awarded to a recipient of the Medal on his completion of 20 years of qualifying service and a second Clasp on his completion of 30 years of qualifying service. For each Clasp so awarded, a small silver star shall be added to the ribbon when worn alone.

(3) A period shall be treated as continuous for the purposes of paragraph (1) notwithstanding —

- (a) a break of service for one day for the purpose of awarding a pension or gratuity under the Pensions Regulations set out in the First Schedule to the Pensions Act (Cap. 225);
- (b) any period of leave without pay, except that such period of leave shall not be counted towards the minimum requirement;
- (c) any period of disruption from full-time service, except that such period of disruption shall not be counted towards the minimum requirement;
- (d) any transfer of service from one of the forces, services, bodies and
