SALVATION ARMY ORDINANCE

(CHAPTER 377)

(Original Enactment: Ordinance 23 of 1939)

This private Ordinance is reproduced in the form it appears in the 1955 Revised Edition.

REVISED EDITION 1985

(30th March 1987)

An Ordinance to incorporate the General of the Salvation Army as a Corporation sole having perpetual succession and to vest the property of the Salvation Army in the Straits Settlements in such Corporation.

[15th September 1939]

Whereas by a Deed Poll (hereinafter called “the Deed of Constitution”) dated the 7th day of August 1878 and under the hand and seal of William Booth (the founder and General Superintendent of a Religious Society or Organisation known as “the Christian Mission”) and afterwards enrolled in the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice in England the origin name doctrines and purposes of the said Christian Mission were recited and stated:

And Whereas at some time before the 24th day of June, 1880, the name of the said Religious Society or Organisation was changed from “the Christian Mission” to “The Salvation Army” as appears by a Memorandum of that date under the hand of the said William Booth endorsed on the Deed of Constitution and afterwards enrolled in the Central Office of the Supreme Court of Judicature in England:

And Whereas the said Religious Society or Organisation has since been and is now known as The Salvation Army and the General Superintendent thereof has since been and is now known as The General of the Salvation Army:

And Whereas by a Deed Poll (hereinafter called “the Supplemental Deed of Constitution”) dated the 26th day of July, 1904, under the hand and seal of the said William Booth and afterwards enrolled in the Central Office of the Supreme Court of Judicature in England the provisions of the Deed of Constitution were supplemented by provisions dealing with matters and contingencies not taken account of in the Deed of Constitution:

And Whereas by a Deed Poll dated the 21st day of November, 1930, under the hand
