PRIVATE HOSPITALS AND MEDICAL CLINICS REGULATIONS

Rg 1

G.N. No. S 572/1991

REVISED EDITION 2002

(31st January 2002)

[1st January 1993]

PART I

GENERAL

Citation

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Private Hospitals and Medical Clinics Regulations.

Definitions

2.—(1) In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires —

“licence” means the licence referred to in section 2 of the Act;

“licensee” means the holder of a licence;

“registered midwife” means a person registered as a midwife under the Nurses and Midwives Act (Cap. 209);

“registered nurse” means a person registered as a nurse under the Nurses and Midwives Act.

(2) For the purpose of these Regulations, the reference to the number of beds of a private hospital shall include beds which are located in the premises of another licensed private hospital but which, under an arrangement between the first and second mentioned private hospitals, are intended for the use of patients who are admitted to and who are under the management and care of the first mentioned private hospital.

Application for licence

3. Every application for the issue or renewal of a licence shall be made to the Director and shall be in the form in the First Schedule.

General duty of licensee

4.—(1) Every licensee of a private hospital, medical clinic, clinical laboratory or healthcare establishment shall comply with such directions or guidelines as may be given
