1. These Regulations may be cited as the Income Tax (Concessionary Rate of Tax for Approved Offshore General Insurance Companies) Regulations and shall have effect for the year of assessment 1996 and subsequent years of assessment.

Definitions

2. In these Regulations —

“approved insurance company” means any insurance company approved under regulation 3;

“capital allowances” means the allowances under section 19, 19A, 20, 21, 22 or 23 of the Act;

“interest from ACU deposits” means interest derived from deposits with an Asian Currency Unit in Singapore;

“offshore general insurance business” means the business (other than the business of life insurance) of insuring and reinsuring offshore risks;

“offshore investments” means —

- (a) stocks and shares denominated in any foreign currency of companies not incorporated and not resident in Singapore;
- (b) securities, other than stocks and shares, denominated in any foreign currency (including bonds, notes, certificates of deposit and treasury bills) issued by foreign governments, foreign banks outside Singapore and companies not incorporated and not resident in Singapore;
- (c) futures contracts denominated in any foreign currency made in any futures exchange;
- (d) any immovable property situated outside Singapore;
- (e) certificates of deposit, notes and bonds issued by Asian Currency Units in Singapore;
- (f) Asian Dollar Bonds approved under section 13(1)(v) of the Act; and
- (g) foreign currency deposits with financial institutions outside Singapore.

Approval of insurance company

3. The Minister or such person as he may appoint may, upon application by any insurance company registered under the Insurance Act [Cap. 142] to carry on general insurance business only and if he considers it expedient in the public interest to do so, approve the insurance company for the purposes of these Regulations where —

- (a) the insurance company has on 5th May 1995 been carrying on offshore general insurance business and the application is made not later than 31st December 1995; or
- (b) the insurance company commences to carry on offshore general insurance business after 5th May 1995 and the application is made within 3 months after the date of commencement of such business.

Concessionary rate of tax

4.—(1) Tax shall be payable at the rate of 10% on the following income derived by an approved insurance company:

- (a) the income derived from accepting general insurance covering offshore risks and reinsurance covering offshore risks;
- (b) the dividends and interest derived from outside Singapore, the gains or profits realised from the sale of offshore investments, and interest from ACU deposits derived from —
 - (i) subject to paragraph (2), the investment of its insurance fund established and maintained under the Insurance Act [Cap. 142] for the offshore general insurance business; and
 - (ii) the investment of its shareholders' funds established in Singapore which are used to support the offshore general insurance business as ascertained under regulation 5.

(2) Where the Comptroller is satisfied that any part of the insurance fund referred to in sub-paragraph (b)(i) of paragraph (1) is not required to support the offshore general insurance business of an approved insurance company, he may adopt such reduced amount of the dividends, interest and gains or profits under that sub-paragraph as appears to him to be reasonable in the circumstances.

Calculation of dividends, interest and gains from sale of offshore investments

5.—(1) The dividends and interest under regulation 4(1)(b)(ii) derived by an approved insurance company for the basis period for any year of assessment shall be ascertained by the formula —
