(CHAPTER 134, SECTION 49)

INCOME TAX (SINGAPORE — DENMARK) (AVOIDANCE OF DOUBLE TAXATION CONVENTION) ORDER 1986

O 10

G.N. No. S 33/1986

REVISED EDITION 1990

(25th March 1992)

[14th February 1986]

WHEREAS it is provided by section 49 of the Income Tax Act that if the Minister by order declares that arrangements specified in the order have been made with the Government of any country outside Singapore with a view to affording relief from double taxation in relation to tax under the Act and any tax of a similar character imposed by the laws of that country, and that it is expedient that those arrangements should have effect, the arrangements shall have effect in relation to tax under the Act notwithstanding anything in any written law:

AND WHEREAS by a Convention dated 7th March 1969 between the Government of the Republic of Singapore and the Government of the Kingdom of Denmark, arrangements were made amongst other things for the avoidance of double taxation:

AND WHEREAS by a Convention dated 3rd February 1986 between the Government of the Republic of Singapore and the Government of the Kingdom of Denmark, the arrangements set out in the said Convention shall replace the arrangements set out in the Convention dated 7th March 1969:

NOW, THEREFORE, it is hereby declared by the Minister for Finance —

- (a) that the arrangements specified in the Schedule have been made with the Government of the Kingdom of Denmark to replace the arrangements made under the Convention dated 7th March 1969 with effect from the year of assessment 1984; and
- (b) that it is expedient that the arrangements set out in the Schedule shall have effect for the year of assessment 1984 and subsequent years of assessment notwithstanding anything in any written law.

THE SCHEDULE

CONVENTION BETWEEN THE REPUBLIC OF SINGAPORE

AND

THE KINGDOM OF DENMARK

FOR THE AVOIDANCE OF DOUBLE TAXATION

AND

THE PREVENTION OF FISCAL EVASION

WITH RESPECT TO TAXES ON INCOME

The Government of the Republic of Singapore and the Government of the Kingdom of Denmark,

Desiring to conclude a Convention for the avoidance of double taxation and the prevention of fiscal evasion with respect to taxes on income,

Have agreed as follows:

ARTICLE 1

PERSONAL SCOPE

This Convention shall apply to persons who are residents of one or both of the Contracting States.

ARTICLE 2

TAXES COVERED

1. This Convention shall apply to taxes on income imposed on behalf of a Contracting State or of its political subdivisions or local authorities, irrespective of the manner in which they are levied.

2. There shall be regarded as taxes on income all taxes imposed on total income or on elements of income, including taxes on gains from the alienation of movable or immovable property and taxes on the total amounts of wages or salaries paid by enterprises, as well as taxes on capital appreciation which is taxed as income.

3. The existing taxes to which the Convention shall apply are:

(a) in Singapore:

the income tax (hereinafter referred to as “Singapore tax”);

(b) in Denmark:

(i) the income tax to the state (indkomstskatten til staten);

(ii) the municipal income tax (den kommunale indkomstskat);

(iii) the income tax to the county municipalities (den amtskommunale indkomstskat);

(iv) the old age pension contribution (folkepensionsbidraget);

(v) the seamen’s tax (sømandsskatten);

(vi) the special income tax (den saerlige indkomstskat);

(vii) the church tax (kirkeskatten);

(viii) the tax on dividends (udbytteskatten);

(ix) the contribution to the sickness “per diem” fund (bidrag til dagpengefonden);

(x) the hydrocarbon tax (kulbrinteskatten);
(hereinafter referred to as “Danish tax”).

4. The Convention shall apply also to any identical or substantially similar taxes which are imposed after the date of signature of the Convention in addition to, or in place of, the existing taxes. The competent authorities of the Contracting States shall notify each other of significant changes which have been made in their respective taxation laws.

5. If by reason of changes made in the taxation law of either Contracting State, it seems desirable to amend any Article of the Convention without affecting the general principles thereof the necessary amendments may be made by mutual consent by means of an exchange of diplomatic notes or in any other manner in accordance with their constitutional procedures.

ARTICLE 3

GENERAL DEFINITIONS

1. For the purposes of this Convention, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (a)
 - (i) the term “Singapore” means the Republic of Singapore;
 - (ii) the term “Denmark” means the Kingdom of Denmark, including any area adjacent to the territorial sea of Denmark, within which, under the laws of Denmark concerning the continental shelf and in accordance with international law, Denmark may exercise its rights with respect of the exploration and exploitation of the natural resources of the sea-bed and its subsoil; the term does not comprise the Faroe Islands and Greenland;
