PORT OF SINGAPORE AUTHORITY (PARKING PLACES) (SCALE OF RATES) NOTIFICATION

N 7

REVISED EDITION 1990

(25th March 1992)

[1st January 1982]

Citation

1. This Notification may be cited as the Port of Singapore Authority (Parking Places) (Scale of Rates) Notification.

Definitions

2. In this Notification, unless the context otherwise requires —

“coupon parking place” means a parking place where vehicles may be parked using parking coupons;

“driver” means the person for the time being in control of a vehicle and includes the owner of the vehicle;

“park”, with its grammatical variations, means, in respect of a vehicle, to bring the vehicle to a stationary position and cause it to wait for any purpose;

“parking coupon” or “coupon” means a coupon issued by the Authority upon payment of the appropriate fee;

“parking place” means any such place belonging to the Authority;

“vehicle” means any vehicle whether mechanically propelled or otherwise.

Payment of prescribed parking charge

3. Where the driver of a vehicle fails to pay any prescribed parking charge due within 7 days of the parking of the vehicle in a parking place, other than a coupon parking place, the registered owner of the vehicle shall, on being notified in writing, pay to the Authority within 7 days of such notification and at the place stated in the notification —

(a) the prescribed parking charge and a surcharge of $10; and

(b) a charge for any expenses incurred in obtaining the particulars of the registered owner.

Surcharge

4.—(1) Where the driver of a vehicle continues to park his vehicle in a coupon parking place for any period of time after the expiry of the period of parking covered by one or more valid coupons (referred to in this Notification as the excess period) without displaying another or more valid coupons to cover such excess period, the driver shall, within 7 days of such parking, pay to the Authority —

(a) in cases where the excess period does not exceed one hour, the prescribed charge and a surcharge equal to 4 times the prescribed charge; and
