REVISED EDITION 1990

(25th March 1992)

[5th October 1973]

Citation

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Port of Singapore Authority (Parking Places) Regulations.

Definitions

2. In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires —

“driver” means the person for the time being in control of a vehicle and includes the owner of the vehicle;

“motor lorry” means a motor vehicle (not being a motor car, prime mover or trailer) which is constructed to carry a load or more than 11 passengers, including the driver, and the weight of which unladen exceeds one and a quarter tons;

“motor vehicle” means a mechanically propelled vehicle intended or adapted for use on roads;

“park” with its grammatical variations means, in respect of a vehicle, to bring such vehicle to a stationary position and cause it to wait for any purpose;

“parking attendant” means a person appointed by the Authority as a car park attendant;

“parking lot” means the space marked out in a parking place for the parking of one vehicle;

“parking place” means any such place belonging to the Authority;

“prescribed charge” means any charge prescribed by the Authority for the parking of a vehicle in a parking lot;

“registered car owner” means the person registered as the owner of the motor vehicle under the Road Traffic (Motor Vehicles Registration and Licensing) Rules;
[R 6.]

“road” means any road within the Authority’s premises to which the public has access;

“season parking place” means a parking place, so designated in writing on one or more signboards or in any other manner, wherein only vehicles in respect of which season parking tickets have been purchased may be parked;

“season parking ticket” means the official receipt issued by the Authority showing the registration number of a vehicle and the amount of the prescribed charge for the parking of such vehicle in a specified season parking place at any time during a period of one calendar month;

“vehicle” means any vehicle whether mechanically propelled or otherwise;

“whole day parking place” means a parking place so designated in writing on one or more signboards or in any other manner wherein a vehicle may be parked for a whole day in such parking place at a prescribed charge.

Parking only in designated lots

3. No person shall park a vehicle at any place on a road or length of road within the Authority’s premises in which there is a parking lot, except in such parking lot as may be designated by the Authority as a parking lot for such vehicle.

Unauthorised use of parking lot

4.—(1) No person shall, without the prior written permission of the Authority, make use of any parking lot in a parking place for any purpose other than that of parking a vehicle in accordance with these Regulations.

(2) The Authority may designate by written notice on one or more signboards or by the delineation of white lines or by the placing of studs in the ground or otherwise any place on any road or land belonging to the Authority as a parking place and may revoke, amend or suspend any such designation.

(3) A parking place may be divided into parking lots by white lines or studs or in any other manner.

Prescribed charge

5.—(1) A person who has parked a vehicle at a parking place during the times specified on a signboard at such place shall pay the prescribed charge to the parking attendant on duty at such place.

(2) Where no prescribed charge has been paid under paragraph (1), the prescribed charge shall be paid to the Authority by such person within 7 days of the parking of the vehicle.

Parking after expiry of paid period

6.—(1) No person shall continue to park a vehicle or cause or permit a vehicle to be parked in a parking lot after the expiry of the period for which such vehicle is authorised to be parked in such parking lot as stated in the official receipt issued by a parking attendant.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), the Authority may allow a vehicle to continue to be so parked and require the charge therefor to be paid within 7 days of such parking.

Further payment if vehicle is removed and parked again

7.—(1) No person who has removed his vehicle from a parking lot shall be entitled to park that vehicle in the same parking lot a second time without further payment of the prescribed charge, whether the period for which such vehicle may be authorised to be parked in such parking lot as stated in any official receipt issued by the parking attendant on duty has expired or not.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to the holder of a season parking ticket who parks his vehicle in a season parking place allotted to him.

Procedure for parking

8.—(1) Any person using a parking place shall obey all lawful directions given to him by any parking attendant on duty at such parking place and shall as soon as the vehicle
