[3rd April 1987]

Citation

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Port of Singapore Authority (Pleasure Craft) Regulations.

PART I

PRELIMINARY

Definitions

2.—(1) In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires —

“licence” means a licence to use a pleasure craft within the port issued under Part II;

“passenger” means every person other than —

- (a) the master and the members of the crew or a person employed or engaged in any capacity on board a pleasure craft on the business thereof; and
- (b) a child under one year of age;

“pleasure craft” means any harbour craft —

- (a) which is used exclusively for pleasure purposes other than for the carriage of passengers on sightseeing tours within the port; and
- (b) for the use of which a passenger, if any, is not charged a separate and distinct fare;

“register” means a register of licences kept by the Port Master pursuant to regulation 10.

(2) For the purposes of these Regulations —

- (a) any person who —
