No. 860

15 August 2008

Transfer of 3 048 previously disadvantaged widows to the Transnet
Second Defined Benefit Fund
July 2008

I, Alexander Erwin , Minister of Public Enterprises, with the approval of Transnet Limited and the Board of Trustees of the Transnet Second Defined Benefit Fund hereby determine in terms of section 14B(7) of the Transnet Pension Fund Act no. 62 of 1990, as amended, that the 3 048 spouses of black pensioners who retired from the SA Railways and Harbours or the SA Transport Services (SATS) (now called Transnet Limited) during the period 16 December 1974 to 1 April 1986 and who are not entitled to a spouse's pension from the Transnet pension funds become entitled with effect from 31 March 2007, to pensions and benefits from the Transnet Second Defined Benefit Fund, which shall be no less favourable than that which they presently receive from Transnet Limited whereupon the pensions and benefits from Transnet Limited shall cease.

This Notice is called the Transfer of Pre-1986 Widows to the Transnet Second Defined Benefit Fund and comes into retrospective effect on 31 March 2007.
