

English is not an official language of the Swiss Confederation. This translation is provided for information purposes only and has no legal force.

Ordinance
on the Organisation of the National Contact Point for the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises and on its Advisory Board (NCPO-OECD)

of 1 May 2013 (Status as of 1 June 2013)

The Swiss Federal Council, on the basis of Articles 55, 57 and 57c paragraph 2 of the Government and Administration Organisation Act of 21 March 1997¹, ordains:

Section 1
National Contact Point for the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises

Art. 1 Tasks

¹ The National Contact Point for the OECD² Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises (NCP) promotes in terms of Clause I.11 of the OECD Guidelines of 25 May 2011³ for Multinational Enterprises (OECD Guidelines) the implementation of the Guidelines by international enterprises that have their registered office or a permanent establishment in Switzerland.

² It has the following tasks in particular:

- a. It promotes awareness and the dissemination of the OECD Guidelines.
- b. It accepts submissions raising specific instances regarding possible violations by companies of the OECD Guidelines and mediates between the parties.
- c. It responds to enquiries about the OECD Guidelines.

AS 2013 1313

¹ SR 172.010

² Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development

³ OECD Declaration of 25 May 2011; www.oecd.org > Topics > Industry and Entrepreneurship > Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises; a German translation is available in the report of 11 January 2012 on foreign economic policy 2011, BBl 2012 827, here 938.

Art. 2 Responsibility

The State Secretariat for Economic Affairs (SECO) runs the NCP.

Art. 3 Submissions raising specific instances

¹ Submissions raising specific instances regarding possible violations of the OECD Guidelines may be raised by individual persons or groups.

² They must be submitted in writing.

Art. 4 Procedure for dealing with submissions raising specific instances

¹ The NCP shall issue instructions on dealing with submissions raising specific instances, taking account of the Procedural Guidance of the OECD Guidelines.

² The NCP shall set up a working group within the Federal Administration to deal with a submission raising a specific instance. The working group shall include representatives of the offices of the Federal Administration that are affected by the specific instance.

Section 2Federal Advisory Board to the National Contact Point for the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises*Art. 5 Status

The Federal Advisory Board to the National Contact Point for the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises (NCP Advisory Board) is a standing administrative committee as defined in Article 8a paragraph 2 of the Government and the Administration Organisation Ordinance of 25 November 1998⁴ (GAOO).

Art. 6 Tasks

¹ The NCP Advisory Board advises the NCP on its strategic orientation and on the application of the OECD Guidelines and the NCP procedural instructions.

² It shall encourage a dialogue between interest groups and contribute to the effective implementation of the OECD Guidelines.

Art. 7 Composition and appointment

¹ The NCP Advisory Board has 14 members. It shall comprise:

- a. the Director of SECO and three further members of the Federal Administration;
- b. two representatives each from employers' federations, trade unions, trade associations, non-governmental organisations and academia.

⁴ SR 172.010.1