Section 2

INSPECTIONS

Appointment of inspectors

- 1 The Secretary of State may appoint a person to be an inspector for the purposes of this Act.

Powers of entry

- 2 An inspector may enter any premises (other than premises used only as a dwelling) if there are reasonable grounds for suspecting—
- (a) that an offence under section 1 is being, has been or is about to be committed on the premises, or
 - (b) that evidence of the commission of an offence under section 1 may be found on the premises.
- 3 (1) An inspector may enter premises used only as a dwelling if a justice of the peace has issued a warrant authorising the inspector to enter those premises.
- (2) A justice of the peace may only issue such a warrant if, on an application by an inspector, the justice is satisfied on sworn information in writing—
- (a) that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting—
 - (i) that an offence under section 1 is being, has been or is about to be committed on the premises, or
 - (ii) that evidence of the commission of an offence under section 1 may be found on the premises; and
 - (b) that any of the conditions in sub-paragraph (3) is satisfied.
- (3) The conditions are—
- (a) that entry to the premises is unlikely to be granted unless a warrant is produced and that notice of intention to apply for a warrant has been given to the occupier;
 - (b) that an application for admission to the premises or the giving of notice of intention to apply for a warrant might defeat the object of entry;
 - (c) that the premises are unoccupied;
 - (d) that the occupier is temporarily absent and it might defeat the object of entry to wait for the occupier's return.

Exercise of powers of entry

- 4 (1) Before exercising a power of entry, an inspector must, if requested to do so by a person on the premises—
- (a) produce evidence of the inspector's identity, and
 - (b) outline the purpose for which the power is exercised.
- (2) Where an inspector enters premises under a warrant issued under paragraph 3, the inspector must also—
- (a) produce a copy of the warrant, and
 - (b) supply the occupier (if present), or any other person appearing to the inspector to be in charge of the premises, with a copy of the warrant.
