<sup>(2)</sup> 2004 c. 20. Chapter 3 of Part 2 is amended by the Energy Act 2008 (c. 32) sections 69 to 71, 107 and 108 and Schedule 5, paragraphs 16 and 17 and Schedule 6.

“relevant date” has the meaning given in regulation 6 (determination of relevant date).

Coming into force of section 62 of the 2016 Act

3.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), section 62 of the 2016 Act (offshore renewable energy installations) comes into force on 1st April 2017.

(2) Paragraph (1) is subject to the transitional and savings provisions in regulation 4 (transitional and savings provisions for existing installations).

Transitional and savings provisions for existing installations

4.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), Chapter 3 of Part 2 of the 2004 Act (decommissioning of offshore installations) shall continue to have effect in relation to an existing installation as if it had not been amended by section 62(9) to (15) of the 2016 Act.

(2) Paragraph (1) ceases to apply in relation to an existing installation if that installation reaches its relevant date.

Meaning of existing installation

5.—(1) In regulation 4, an existing installation is an offshore installation (or part of such an installation) which is the subject of an existing statutory consent and for which as at 1st April 2017—

- (a) construction has started, and
- (b) either paragraph (2) or (3) applies.

(2) This paragraph applies where the installation has a decommissioning date before 1st January 2023.

(3) This paragraph applies where the installation has a decommissioning date on or after 1st January 2023 and either—

- (a) there is no approved decommissioning programme in place relating to that installation; or
- (b) the approved decommissioning programme relating to that installation was approved subject to the provision of financial security by a prescribed date, and the prescribed date has passed and the security has not been provided.

(4) In this regulation—

- (a) for the purposes of paragraph (1)(a), construction has not started on an installation where the only work carried out is the laying of cables in anticipation of construction;
- (b) “decommissioning date” means the end date of the marine licence issued in relation to the offshore installation or to part of that installation;
- (c) “marine licence” means a licence issued under either—
  - (i) Part 2 (deposits in the sea) of the Food and Environment Protection Act 1985<sup>(3)</sup>,
  - (ii) Part 4 (marine licensing) of the Marine and Coastal Access Act 2009<sup>(4)</sup>, or
  - (iii) Part 4 (marine licensing) of the Marine (Scotland) Act 2010<sup>(5)</sup>; and
- (d) “offshore installation” has the meaning given in section 104 (interpretation of chapter 2 of part 2) of the 2004 Act.
