SOCIAL SECURITY

The Social Security (Reciprocal Agreements) Order 2017

Made - - - - 15th February 2017

Coming into force - - 6th April 2017

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 15th day of February 2017

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

The Orders in Council specified in Schedule 2 to this Order modified or adapted certain enactments so as to give effect to the agreements set out in the Schedules to those Orders.

Her Majesty's Government in consequence of changes in the law of Great Britain has proposed to each of the Governments with whom the United Kingdom has made such an agreement, alterations to the agreement.

Section 179(1)(b), (2), (4) and (5) of the Social Security Administration Act 1992⁽¹⁾ provides that for the purpose of giving effect to any such agreement as it would be if it were so altered in accordance with such proposals, Her Majesty may by Order in Council make provision for modifying or adapting the Social Security Administration Act 1992, the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992⁽²⁾ and Part 5 of the Pensions Act 2014⁽³⁾, and any regulations made under those Acts or section 30 of the Pensions Act 2014, in their application to cases affected by the proposed alterations.

Accordingly, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 179(1)(b), (2) and (5) and 189(4) and (5)⁽⁴⁾ of the Social Security Administration Act 1992, to order as follows.

Citation and commencement

1. This Order may be cited as the Social Security (Reciprocal Agreements) Order 2017 and shall come into force on 6th April 2017.

(1) 1992 c.5. Section 179 was amended by paragraph 33 of Schedule 16 to the Pensions Act 2014 (c.19). Other amendments to section 179 are not relevant to this Order.

(2) 1992 c.4.

(3) 2014 c.19.

(4) Subsections (4) and (5) of section 189 were amended by paragraph 109 of Schedule 7 to the Social Security Act 1998 (c.14). Sub-section (4) was also amended by S.I. 2013/252.

Modification of legislation

2. The Social Security Administration Act 1992, the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 and Part 5 (bereavement support payment) of the Pensions Act 2014 and regulations made under those Acts or section 30 of the Pensions Act 2014, shall be modified to such extent as may be required to give effect to—

- (a) the alterations set out in Schedule 1 which are proposed to the agreements set out in the Schedules to the Orders in Council specified in Schedule 2;
- (b) the alterations set out in Schedule 3 which are proposed to the agreement set out in the Schedule to the Order in Council referred to in Schedule 3.

Richard Tilbrook
Clerk of the Privy Council

SCHEDULE 1

Article 2(a)

PROPOSED ALTERATIONS TO EXISTING AGREEMENTS

1. For the purposes of the alterations proposed in this Schedule—

(a) “bereavement benefits” means—

- (i) widow’s benefit,
- (ii) bereavement benefit,
- (iii) survivor’s pension,
- (iv) survivor’s benefit,
- (v) basic survivor’s benefit,
- (vi) death grant,
- (vii) benefits in respect of the death of a spouse or civil partner, or
- (viii) any equivalent terms;

(b) “the agreements set out in the Schedules” means the agreements set out in the Schedules to the Orders in Council specified in Schedule 2;

(c) bereavement support payment means payment under Part 5 (bereavement support payment) of the Pensions Act 2014.

2. Subject to paragraphs 4 to 8 of this Schedule, where in the agreements set out in the Schedules there are references to bereavement benefits, such references shall be altered to include a reference to bereavement support payment.

3. Subject to paragraphs 4 to 8 of this Schedule, where in the agreements set out in the Schedules there are references to the legislation to which the agreements apply, such references shall be altered to include a reference to Part 5 of the Pensions Act 2014.

4. For the purposes of entitlement to bereavement support payment, where in the agreements set out in the Schedules there are references to a person who is entitled to receive bereavement benefits under the legislation of the United Kingdom while that person is in the territory of the other country as if that person were in the territory of the United Kingdom, such references shall be altered to include a reference to a person who is ordinarily resident in the territory of the other country when their spouse or civil partner dies as if they were ordinarily resident in Great Britain at that time.

5. Where in the agreements set out in the Schedules there are references to an increase in the rate of bereavement benefits under the legislation of the United Kingdom such references shall be altered to include a reference to an increase in the rate of bereavement support payment in the case of a person who is ordinarily resident in the territory of the other country when their spouse or civil partner dies as if they were ordinarily resident in Great Britain at that time.

6. For the purposes of entitlement to the higher rate of bereavement support payment by virtue of regulations under section 30(4) (bereavement support payment) of the Pensions Act 2014, where in the agreements set out in the Schedules there are references to a person who is entitled to bereavement benefits or an increase in bereavement benefits under the legislation of the United Kingdom in respect of a child who is in the territory of the other country as if that child were in the territory of the United Kingdom, such references shall be altered to include a reference to a person who is treated as entitled to child benefit in respect of a child when—

- (a) the child is ordinarily resident in the territory of the other country, and
- (b) that person would be entitled to child benefit in respect of that child if the child were in the territory of the United Kingdom.

7. Where in the agreements set out in the Schedules there are—
