EMPLOYMENT AND TRAINING

The Industrial Training Levy (Engineering Construction Board) Order 1998

Made	-	-	-	-		1998
Coming into force	-	-				1998

Whereas the Engineering Construction Industry Training Board has submitted proposals for the raising and collection of a levy under section 11(1) of the Industrial Training Act 1982⁽¹⁾ (“the 1982 Act”);

And whereas in pursuance of section 11(3) of the 1982 Act the said proposals include provision for the exemption from the levy of employers who, in view of the small number of their employees, ought in the opinion of the Secretary of State to be exempted from it;

And whereas the proposals are made in pursuance of section 11(4)(b) of the 1982 Act and the Secretary of State is satisfied that those proposals fall within section 11(5)(b) of the said Act (“the relevant proposals”) and that they are necessary as mentioned in the said section 11(5), and that the condition mentioned in section 11(6)(a) of the 1982 Act is satisfied in the case of the relevant proposals;

And whereas the Secretary of State considers that the amount which will be payable by virtue of the following Order by certain employers in the engineering construction industry and which he estimates will exceed an amount which he estimates as equal to one per cent. of relevant emoluments, is appropriate in all the circumstances, and the following Order therefore falls within section 11(7)(b) of the 1982 Act;

And whereas a draft of the following Order was laid before Parliament in accordance with section 12(6) of the 1982 Act and approved by resolution of each House of Parliament;

Now, therefore, the Secretary of State, in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 11(2), 12(3) and (4) of the 1982 Act and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order:—

(1) 1982 c. 10; sections 11 and 12 were amended by the Employment Act 1989 (c. 38), Schedule 4, paragraphs 10 and 11 respectively.

Citation and commencement

- (b) engaged wholly in agriculture; or
- (c) engaged wholly in the supply of food or drink for immediate consumption;
- (d) holding office as a company director and having no contract of service.

(3) Any reference in this Order to an establishment that commences to carry on business or that ceases to carry on business shall not be taken to apply where the location of the establishment is changed but its business is continued wholly or mainly at or from the new location, or where the suspension of activities is of a temporary or seasonal nature.

(4) For the purposes of this Order in the case of an establishment that is taken over (whether directly or indirectly) by an employer in succession to, or jointly with another person, the person or persons carrying on the establishment on the day upon which this Order comes into force shall be treated as the employer of any person who was employed at any time in the period of twelve months that commenced on 6th April 1997 at or from the establishment under a contract of service or of apprenticeship or under a labour-only agreement and that employer shall be assessed to levy in accordance with article 3 of this Order.

(5) This Order applies to the activities of the engineering construction industry in so far as they are carried out in Great Britain or in so far as they are for such purposes as are relevant to or in relation to employment to which the Employment Protection (Offshore Employment) Order 1976⁽⁷⁾ applies.

⁽⁶⁾ S.I. 1964/1086, amended by S.I. 1991/1305.

⁽⁷⁾ S.I. 1976/766 (the whole of the Industrial Training Act 1982 has been applied by the Employment Protection (Offshore Employment) Order 1976 for such purposes as are relevant to or in relation to persons in employment to which that Order applies (article 3 and Part 1 of the Schedule, paragraph 1); relevant amending instruments are S.I. 1977/588, 1981/208.

Imposition of levy

3.—(1) The levy to be imposed by the Board on employers in respect of the thirty-fourth levy period shall be assessed in accordance with the provisions of this article.

(2) The levy shall be assessed by the Board separately in respect of each establishment of an employer, but in agreement with the employer one assessment may be made in respect of any number of such establishments, in which case those establishments shall be deemed for the purposes of that assessment to constitute one establishment.

(3) Subject to the provisions of this article the levy on each employer shall be assessed by the Board in respect of the emoluments and labour-only payments paid by him to all persons to whom paragraph (4) below applies employed by the employer in the thirty-fourth base period at relevant establishments of his (that is to say, any engineering construction establishment or establishments, or any establishment or establishments comprising engineering construction activities other than an establishment or establishments of an employer who is exempt from the levy by virtue of articles 4 and 5 of this Order), and the amount of the levy shall be as specified in paragraph (5) of this article.

(4) This paragraph applies to—

- (a) in the case of an engineering construction establishment, all persons employed;
- (b) in the case of an establishment comprising engineering construction activities, all persons employed wholly or mainly in engineering construction activities.

(5) The levy assessed in respect of any establishment to which paragraph (3) of this article applies shall be the aggregate of—

- (a) an amount equal to 1.5 per cent. of the sum of the emoluments of all site employees (excluding those employed under a labour-only agreement) employed in the thirty-fourth base period at or from the establishment by the employer where that sum exceeds £75,000; and
- (b) an amount equal to the sum (if any) by which 2 per cent. of the labour-only payments for site employees exceeds 2 per cent. of the labour-only receipts for those employees; and
- (c) an amount equal to 0.4 per cent. of the sum of the emoluments of all employees (other than site employees and those employed under a labour-only agreement) employed in the thirty-fourth base period at or from the establishment by the employer; and
- (d) an amount equal to the sum (if any) by which 0.5 per cent. of the labour-only payments for off-site employees (that is to say of all employees other than site employees) exceeds 0.5 per cent. of the labour-only receipts for those employees.

(6) In paragraph (5) of this article—

- (a) “labour-only payments” means the sum which (rounded down where necessary to the nearest £1) represents all payments (including payments for the incidental use of tools) made by the employer during the thirty-fourth base period under the labour-only agreements for services rendered to him in his trade or business carried out at or from the establishment;
- (b) “labour-only receipts” means the sum which (rounded down where necessary to the nearest £1) represents all payments (including payments for the incidental use of tools) received by the employer during the thirty-fourth base period from any other employers in the engineering construction industry under the labour-only agreements for services rendered by him or on his behalf in his trade or business carried out at or from the establishment.

Exemption of charities

4. A charity shall be exempt from the levy.
