ILO Cataloguing in Publication Data

The designations employed in ILO publications, which are in conformity with United Nations practice, and the presentation of material therein do not imply the expression of any opinion whatsoever on the part of the International Labour Office concerning the legal status of any country, area or territory or of its authorities, or concerning the delimitation of its frontiers.

The responsibility for opinions expressed in signed articles, studies and other contributions rests solely with their authors, and publication does not constitute an endorsement by the International Labour Office of the opinions expressed in them.

Reference to names of firms and commercial products and processes does not imply their endorsement by the International Labour Office, and any failure to mention a particular firm, commercial product or process is not a sign of disapproval.

► Acknowledgments

This volume was produced with the financial support of the French Government, as part of the cooperation agreement 2015-2020 with the International Labour Office.

The coordinators of this volume wish to thank the authors for their contributions, their responsiveness and patience during the production process of this book.

We would like to acknowledge the editorial work of Manfred Boemeke, Sarah Lloyd and Julie Weidmann. We are also grateful for the translations of the different chapters carried out by Rebecca Cockburn (Spanish to English), Mark Johnson (French to English) and Laurence Rizet (English to French). Thank you to our colleagues Frédérique Dupuy (ILO Office for France) for her remarkable proofreading, Judy Rafferty (Research Department, ILO) for her support in the publication of this volume and Maria Carolina Martins da Costa (Labour Law and Reform Unit) for her help in the editing of the introductory chapter.

We are grateful to the peer reviewers of the different chapters for their valuable revisions, comments and insights: Alvaro Ramírez Bogantes, Juan Ignacio Castillo, Cyril Cosme, Karen Curtis, Janelle Diller, Felix Hadwiger, John Howe, Pablo Lazo Grandi, Caitlin Helfrich, Vongai Masocha, Fabiola Mieres, Konstantinos Papadakis, Nikolai Rogovsky, Arianna Rossi, Ana Sánchez, Angela Serrano and Maria-Luz Vega.

Special thanks for their encouragement and guidance at the various stages of the project to Marva Corley-Coulibaly (Research Department, ILO), Cyril Cosme (ILO Office for France), Damian Grimshaw (previously at the Research Department, ILO), Claire Harasty (Policy, ILO) and Wael Issa (Policy, ILO).

We would like to emphasize that the responsibility for opinions expressed in the following chapters rests solely with their authors, and publication does not constitute an endorsement by the International Labour Office.
