

United Nations Partnership to Promote the Rights of Persons with Disabilities

ILO | OHCHR | UNDESA | UNDP | UNICEF | WHO

TOWARDS AN INCLUSIVE AND ACCESSIBLE FUTURE FOR ALL

Voices of persons with disabilities on the post-2015 development framework

United Nations Partnership to Promote the Rights of Persons with Disabilities

ILO | OHCHR | UNDESA | UNDP | UNICEF | WHO

TOWARDS — AN — INCLUSIVE — AND — ACCESSIBLE FUTURE FOR ALL

VOICES — OF — PERSONS — WITH — DISABILITIES ON THE POST-2015 DEVELOPMENT FRAMEWORK

United Nations
New York, 2013

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The present publication was authored by Mary Keogh with support from Ariel Merkel, under the guidance of the Focal Points for the United Nations Partnership to Promote the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (UNPRPD) from the participating United Nations entities: Barbara Murray, Senior Specialist, Disability, International Labour Organization; Facundo Chávez Penillas, Human Rights and Disability Advisor, Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights; Krista Maria Orama, Associate Human Rights Officer, Human Rights and Disability, Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights; Akiko Ito, Chief, Secretariat for the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities, Department of Economic and Social Affairs of the United Nations; Shifaana Thowfeequ, Social Affairs Officer, Department of Economic and Social Affairs of the United Nations; Shireen Said, Human Rights Adviser, United Nations Development Programme; Laurence Klein, Programme Analyst Human Rights, United Nations Development Programme; Renata Nowak-Garmer, Research Analyst, United Nations Development Programme; Rosangela Berman-Bieler, Chief, Disability Section, United Nations Children's Fund; Alana Officer, Coordinator, Disability and Rehabilitation, World Health Organization; and Kristen Pratt, Technical Officer, World Health Organization.

Additional guidance and invaluable inputs were provided by staff of the UNPRPD civil society partners who kindly accepted to review the draft of the publication and strengthened it with their insightful comments: Stefan Tromel Sturmer, former Executive Director, International Disability Alliance; Vladimir Cuk, Acting Executive Director, International Disability Alliance; Catherine Naughton, Director International Alliances and Advocacy, CBM, and Chair, International Disability and Development Consortium. Thanks are further due to: Becky Band Jain, Communications Specialist, United Nations Development Programme; Rebecca Gibb, Assistant Director, Disability Policy Section, AusAID; Malcolm MacLachlan, Professor of Global Health, Centre for Global Health and School of Psychology, Trinity College Dublin, Ireland; and Lidia Pretorius, Chief Director: Rights of People with Disabilities, Department of Women, Children and People with Disabilities, South Africa. Support during the writing and production process was also provided by Emanuele Sapienza, Policy Specialist, Social Inclusion, United Nations Development Programme, and Coordinator, UNPRPD Technical Secretariat.

The authors and the UNPRPD partners are very grateful to each of the persons with disabilities who gave their time to be interviewed for this publication: Javed Abidi, Ola Abualghaib, Ebenezer Agordome, Mahesh Chandrasekar, Mosharraf Hossain, Jagannath Lamichhane, Setareki Macanawai, Wanja Maina, Andira Pramatyasari, Silvia Quan, Anika Rahman Lipy, Moosa Salie, Risna Utami and Dagnachew Wakene. Our appreciation also goes to Anthony Duttine and Priscille Geiser for agreeing to share their views on the topics covered in the present publication.

This publication has been produced with funding from the Multi-Partner Trust Fund of the United Nations Partnership to Promote the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (UNPRPD Fund) in the context of the project “Strengthening the disability rights dimension of the post-2015 development framework by supporting the meaningful engagement of persons with disabilities”.

Rodenson kicks around a soccer ball with friends. Port-au-Prince, Haiti. Photo: Allison Shelley for CBM.

CONTENTS

Introduction	10
Box 1: Key statistics on disability	11
Box 2: Key messages of persons with disabilities on the post-2015 development framework	13
 Section 1: Disability and development—the journey so far	14
1.1. The Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities	14
Box 3: How the CRPD explains disability	14
1.2. The CRPD and international cooperation	14
1.2.1. CRPD articles and their links to mainstream development goals	14
Box 4: Disability and the three dimensions of sustainable development, selected CRPD articles	16
1.2.2. Specific article on international cooperation: article 32	16
Box 5: CRPD article 32—international cooperation	17
1.3. Progress on including disability in development	17
Box 6: Twin-track approach	18
Box 7: The United Nations Partnership to Promote the Rights of Persons with Disabilities	19
1.4. Lessons learned from the Millennium Development Goals	19
 Section 2: Including the voice of persons with disabilities in discussions for a new development agenda	22
2.1. Principle of consulting with persons with disabilities: “Nothing about us without us”	22
2.2. Involvement of persons with disabilities in the global conversation on the future of development cooperation	23
2.2.1. UNDG-facilitated consultations on the post-2015 development framework	23
2.2.2. High-level Panel and the voice of persons with disabilities	25
Box 8: Persons with disabilities have their voices heard	25
2.2.3. Consultations for the High-level Meeting of the General Assembly on disability and development (HLMDD)	25

Section 3: Key challenges to disability-inclusive development	28
3.1. Negative attitudes towards and perceptions of persons with disabilities	28
3.1.1. Prevalence of the charitable approach to disability and the need for a human rights-based approach	28
3.1.2. Assumptions that persons with disabilities are all the same	30
3.2. Lack of disaggregated data	32
3.3. No universal guidelines on disability-inclusive development	34
3.4. Absence of the voices of persons with disabilities in the decision-making process.....	35
3.5. Lack of recognition of disability as a cross-cutting issue	36
3.6. Need for political leadership	37
 Section 4: Key steps towards a disability-inclusive society	 40
4.1. A new attitude towards the inclusion of persons with disabilities	40
Good practice example 1: Monitoring government commitments in Togo	42
4.2. Data: a key factor in measuring success	42
4.3. Accessibility: a key requirement for inclusive development	43
Good practice example 2: AusAID's Accessibility Design Guide	44
4.4. Participation: nothing about us without us	44
Good practice example 3: Supporting organizations of persons with disabilities	47
4.5. A whole-of-government approach: disability as a cross-cutting policy issue	47
Good practice example 4: Including persons with disabilities in training and employment	48
4.6. Political commitment to promoting and respecting the human rights of persons with disabilities	48
 Section 5: Towards 2015 and beyond	 50

ACRONYMS

CRPD	Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities
CEB	United Nations System Chief Executives Board for Coordination
IASG	Inter-Agency Support Group on the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (of the United Nations)
IDA	International Disability Alliance
IDDC	International Disability and Development Consortium
ILO	International Labour Organization
HLMDD	High-Level Meeting of the General Assembly on disability and development
HLP	High-level Panel of Eminent Persons on the Post-2015 Development Agenda
MDGs	Millennium Development Goals
OHCHR	Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights
UNDESA	Department of Economic and Social Affairs of the United Nations
UNDG	United Nations Development Group
UNDP	United Nations Development Programme
UNICEF	United Nations Children's Fund

预览已结束，完整报告链接和二维码如下：

https://www.yunbaogao.cn/report/index/report?reportId=5_12140

