

Experiences, Challenges and Opportunities:

Collaboration for Pro-Poor Land
Governance - United Nations and Civil Society Organizations

Experiences, Challenges and Opportunities:

Collaboration for Pro-Poor Land Governance -
United Nations and Civil Society Organizations

International Land Coalition (ILC)

The International Land Coalition is a global alliance of civil society and intergovernmental organizations working together to promote secure and equitable access to and control over land for poor women and men through advocacy, dialogue and capacity-building.

<http://www.landcoalition.org>

Email: info@landcoalition.org

UNDP Drylands Development Centre (UNDP/DCC) is part of the United Nations Development Programme. It is a unique global thematic centre that provides technical expertise and practical policy advice and programme support for poverty reduction and development in the drylands of the world.

The Centre's work bridges between global policy issues and on-the-ground activities, and helps governments to establish and institutionalize the link between grassroots development activities and pro-poor policy reform. The main areas of focus are: mainstreaming of drylands development issues into national development frameworks; land tenure/reform and sustainable land management; making markets work for the poor; decentralized governance for natural resources management; drought and complex food security; and payment for environmental services.

<http://www.undp.org/drylands>

Email: ddc@undp.org

Copyright © UNDP 2008
All rights reserved
Printed by UNON in Kenya
November 2008

Disclaimer

The views expressed in this publication are those of the authors and do not necessarily represent those of the United Nations, including UNDP, or its member states.

Acknowledgements

The UNDP Drylands Development Centre and the International Land Coalition are indebted to Tim Bending, consultant for the preparation of this document. The document has been made possible, thanks to the contributions of more than 60 civil society organizations that are members of the ILC, or with which the ILC has worked, and also thanks to the contributions of many of ILC's intergovernmental members and partners. It has also been informed by direct contributions from UNDP country offices in Brazil, Cambodia, Sri Lanka, Sudan and the Philippines, and indirectly by the UNDP country offices that assisted with the Cross Practice Initiative (CPI) survey on land resources governance. The document also reflects substantial comments by colleagues at the ILC, including Michael Taylor, and at the UNDP Drylands Development Centre, including Eric Patrick. Special thanks go to Sarah Anyoti for reviewing, and coordinating the editing, design and printing of this document.

Special thanks are also due to participants in the peer-review reference group:
Clarissa Augustinus and Szilard Friccska, UN Habitat
Francesca Thornberry, International Labour Organization (ILO)
Lorenzo Cotula, International Institute for Environment and Development (IIED)
Lubna Alaman, World Food Programme (WFP)
Noha El-Mikawy, Sarah Lister and Knut Lakså, UNDP – Oslo Governance Centre
Sam Moyo, African Institute for Agrarian Studies (AIAS)
Vidya Bhushan Rawat, Social Development Foundation (SDF)

Any errors relating to technical interpretation or substantive presentations are those of the authors.

Table of Contents

List of Figures and Case Studies.....	7
List of Acronyms.....	9
Executive Summary.....	12
1 Introduction.....	21
1.1 About this Document .....	23
2 Land Governance, Civil Society and the UN.....	25
2.1 What is land governance?.....	25
2.2 Why does land governance matter? .....	28
2.3 Making land governance pro-poor .....	32
2.4 UN-CSO collaboration for pro-poor land governance .....	34
3 A broader understanding of what CSOs do reveals many valuable entry points for UN agencies.....	37
3.1 How CSOs promote pro-poor land governance.....	39
3.2 Generating information – Research, monitoring and evaluation .....	40
3.3 Sharing information for empowerment – Civic education and legal empowerment.....	41
3.4 Advocacy – Providing evidence and enabling representation.....	42
3.5 Organizing collective action.....	43
3.6 Providing technical support.....	44
3.7 Opportunities and entry points for collaboration.....	45
4 The UN's role in upholding human rights standards and instruments facilitates and complements the work of CSOs.....	46
4.1 Land governance reform and human rights .....	48
4.2 A rights-based approach to promoting pro-poor land governance .....	49
4.3 Using UN and CSO comparative advantages to the full.....	53
5 UN agencies are in a strategic position to bridge the gap between government and civil society .....	54
5.1 Convene dialogue between government and civil society.....	57
5.2 Build bridges across the government-civil society divide .....	58
5.3 Put land on the public agenda.....	61
5.4 The UN as a catalyst for dialogue.....	62
6 The UN can play a key role in strengthening organizations of the poor for engagement in the reform process .....	63
6.1 The importance of grassroots organizations .....	65
6.2 The importance of coalitions and networks.....	65
6.3 Enhancing the organizational capacity of the poor .....	66

7	Funding should promote a broad-based movement for reform .....	68
7.1	Who to fund? .....	70
7.2	What to fund? .....	70
7.3	How to fund? .....	71
7.4	Accountability, yes; Bureaucracy, no .....	72
7.5	Needing to be accountable to the poor .....	73
7.6	Funding for empowerment .....	76

Annex: Web-based Resources .....	81
---	-----------

List of Figures and Case Studies

Figure 1	Survey of ILC Members and Partners – Which countries were represented?.....	24
Figure 2	The Importance of Land Governance for Achieving the MDGs – UNDP Country Office Views.....	28
Figure 3	CSO Activities throughout the Policy Cycle.....	34
Figure 4	The Importance of Land Issues – UNDP CO and CSO Views .....	35
Figure 5	CSO Activities: How important are the following activities in your organization's work?.....	39
Figure 6	Financial Help for CSOs: "Outside financial help for CSOs risks making them more accountable to donors than to the poor people they seek to represent." Do you agree with this statement? .....	75
Case Study 1	UNDP Country Offices: Realizing opportunities for collaboration in different areas of civil society activity.....	37
Case Study 2	Promoting and monitoring the right to food: FAO's role in facilitating human rights monitoring by civil society .....	47
Case Study 3	Building local capacity to exercise rights: ILO and Indigenous Peoples' rights in Cambodia .....	52
Case Study 4	UNDP Sri Lanka: Acting as a catalyst for dialogue between community organizations and forest administrators.....	56
Case Study 5	Bridging the government-CSO divide: ILC experiences in promoting Land Alliances for National Development .....	60
Case Study 6	IFAD experiences of strengthening rural poor organizations in the Philippines.....	69
Case Study 7	Funding CSO networks to support grassroots participation in policy dialogue: ILO experiences in Kenya .....	69

List of Acronyms

AIAS	African Institute for Agrarian Studies
ALRD	Association for Land Reform and Development (Bangladesh)
ANGOC	Asian NGO Coalition (Philippines)
Anon	Anonymous
ARNow!	Agrarian Reform Network (Philippines)
AusAID	Australian Aid
BDP	Bureau of Development Policy
CAPri	Collective Action and Property Rights
CBO	Community-based Organization
CEPES	Centro Peruano de Estudios Sociales (Peru)
CGIAR	Consultative Group on International Agricultural Research
CIPRODEC	Centro de Investigación, Promoción, y Desarrollo de la Ciudad (Bolivia)
CIRDAP	Centre on Integrated Rural Development for Asia & the Pacific
CNA	Confederación Nacional Agraria (Peru)
CODECA	Comité de Desarrollo Campesino (Guatemala)
CO	Country Office
CONCAD	Fundación Consejo Cristiano de Agencias de Desarrollo (Guatemala)
CPI	Cross Practice Initiative
CSO	Civil Society Organization
CRSC	Community Self-Reliance Centre (Nepal)
DDC	Drylands Development Centre
FAO	Food and Agriculture Organization
FIAN	Food First International Action Network
GEF	Global Environment Facility
ICAARD	International Conference on Agrarian Reform & Rural Development
IFAD	International Fund for Agricultural Development
IFAP	International Federation of Agricultural Producers
IFI	International Financial Institution

预览已结束, 完整报告链接和二维码

<https://www.yunbaogao.cn/report/index/report?re>