

Developing the UN REDD Programme in Paraguay

* Miguel Lovera, Advisor
Secretaría del Ambiente (SEAM)
Asunción - Paraguay

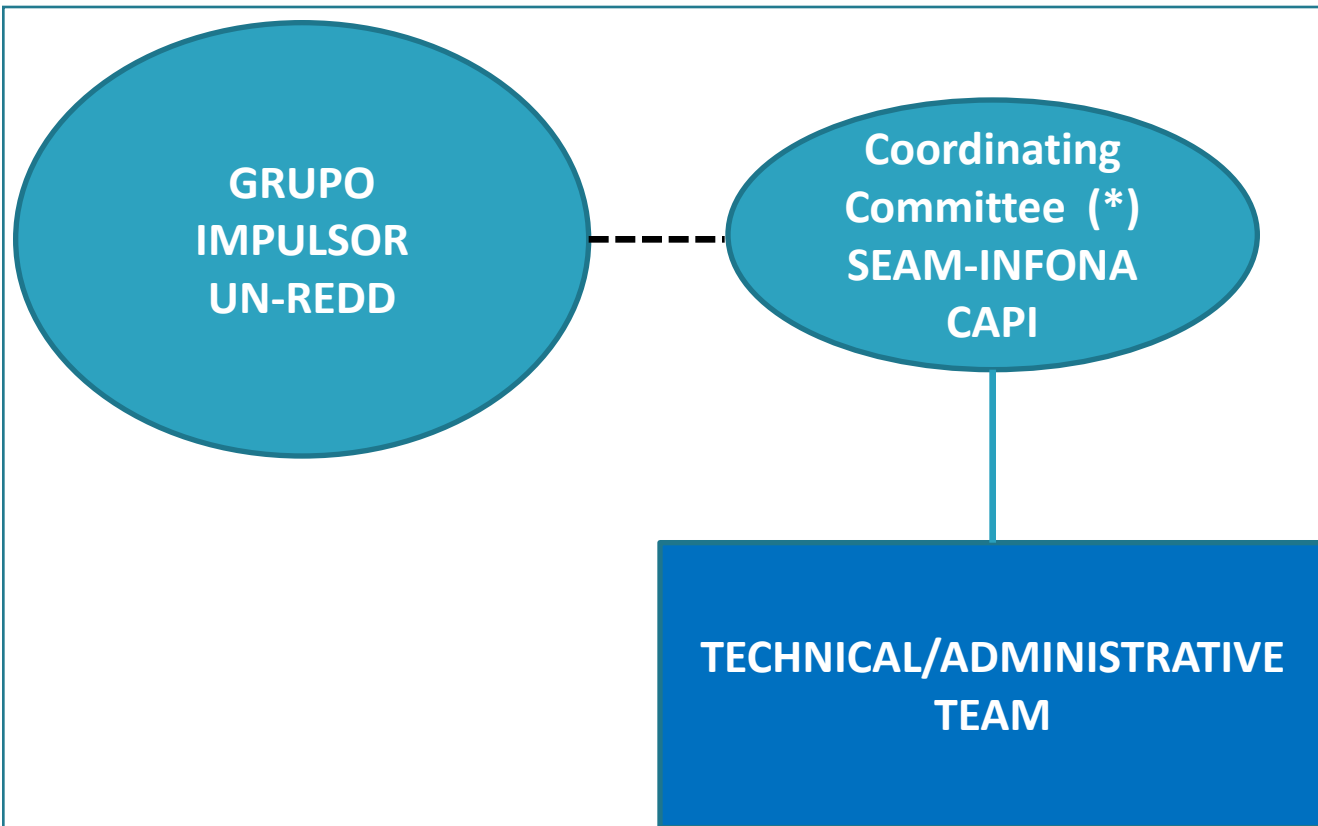

Progress since PB 2

UN REDD arrangements in Paraguay

(as indicated in NJP proposal)

(*) As agreed in inter-institutional agreement between
SEAM and INFONA 2009

Key Outcomes and Outputs: Extracted from the Draft NJP Logical Framework Matrix

NJP-Paraguay currently under development

Project Goal: By the year 2012 Paraguay is REDD-ready and contributes to the reduction of emissions due to deforestation and degradation of forests at national level
Project Objective: To assist the Government of Paraguay in the establishment of a National UN-REDD Programme
Outcome 1: Improved institutional and technical capacity of Government and Civil Society organizations to manage REDD activities in Paraguay	Outputs for Outcome 1: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. REDD National Action Plan 2. National system to measure and evaluate reduction of emissions from deforestation and degradation of forests 3. National system of carbon accounting and data management 4. Equitable and transparent system of payments and benefit sharing
Outcome 2: Capacity established to manage REDD at local level	Outputs for Outcome 2: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Demonstration project designed and implemented
Outcome 3: Increased awareness and support to REDD at national, departmental and municipal levels	Outputs for Outcome 3 <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. National awareness campaign on REDD 2. Consensus-building on REDD with Indigenous Peoples and other stakeholders

Between now and COP15....

- Adjusting Paraguay's policy on forests and climate change
- Participation of Paraguay's IPO at Bangkok and Copenhagen
- Workshop led by SEAM to discuss Paraguay's position on upcoming CC negotiations in Copenhagen (november 10th)

预览已结束，完整报告链接和二维码如下：

https://www.yunbaogao.cn/report/index/report?reportId=5_10519

