This review of the status of the protected areas of East Asia has been greatly assisted by the input of a number of individuals, including: Jargal Jamsramjav and Pragati Tuladhar, Chevening scholars at UNEP-WCMC, and Dr Mark Spalding.

BirdLife International kindly provided EBA and IBA data. Particular thanks are due to Dr Michael Abrams and Dr Gary Geller of the Jet Propulsion Laboratory of NASA, who provided the satellite imagery used in this report.

David Sheppard, Pedro Rosabal and Carolin Karnath of the IUCN Programme in Protected Areas provided support for the project.

Lastly, the project would not have been possible without financial support from the Government of Japan.
