

Graduate Level Teaching Module: Disasters, Environment and Risk Reduction (Eco-DRR)

Promoting Sustainable and Disaster-Resilient Development

This highly interactive and problem-based module provides students with theoretical concepts and practical tools in understanding environment and disaster linkages and applications of ecosystem-based disaster risk management.

Compiled by researchers and practitioners from more than 15 countries and institutions worldwide, the module contains 50 hrs of teaching material (5 ECTS), including:

- Case studies from different countries,
- Role plays and exercises,
- Audiovisual media,
- Supporting education materials.

Course topics include understanding disaster risk and resilience, disaster trends analysis, ecosystem management tools for disaster risk reduction, climate change and ecosystem-based adaptation, and mainstreaming into development, among others.
